Thumbs up for new play area

Longford Primary School pupils enjoy their new outdoor play area

Witness appeal after village store robbery

WITNESSES to a supermarket robbery in Cheslyn Hay are being urged to contact police. Two men, who claimed they had a gun, although no firearm was seen, entered the Co-Op in Landywood Lane at 10.10pm on Monday (May 16). They demanded money from staff and left the scene with an undisclosed amount, which was seen in a clear plastic bag with black markings and the number two written on it. The offenders, who wore hoods and had their faces covered with what are believed to be scarves, ran towards High Street. Staff at the store were left extremely shaken by the incident, but no one was injured. Police, who are following several different leads, have since made door-to-door inquiries, studied CCTV footage and interviewed witnesses. Anyone with information should contact DC Ian McDonack at Staffordshire Police on 0300 123 44 55, quoting incident number 888 of May 16.

PUPILS in Cannock are keeping their fingers crossed for sunny weather so they can make the most of a brand new facility. An outdoor play area, complete with climbing frame, walkways and slides, was unveiled at Longford Primary, in Ascot Drive, last week. Funded by the school's PTA, Friends of Longford, the area will be used by nursery and reception pupils. Deputy head Louise Weston, said pupils had given it the thumbs up so far. She said: "It's fantastic; they absolutely love it. It'll be good to promote outdoor play and sharing."

Driver killed in M-way smash

ONE man died and three women were injured when the car they were travelling in collided with a van on the M6 near Cannock. The accident happened at Junction 11A at the junction with the M6 Toll on Tuesday (May 17), blocking the northbound carriageway. Emergency services also closed the south-bound carriageway while they were dealing with the aftermath of the accident at 12.58pm. The four people in the silver Honda Civic were cut free by fire crews from Cannock, Stafford and Penkridge. The driver, aged 30, was certified dead at the scene. Two air ambulances landed nearby while the injured were being released. A West Midlands ambulance service doctor and paramedics treated the injured while they were still trapped before the female casualties were transferred to hospital. Witnesses are asked to contact officers on 0121 626 1285 and quote reference number 1092 of May 17.

Tenant 'living in fear' over rodents at home

APOLOGY ON RAT INVASION

by TIM SPIERS

tim.spiers@expressandstar.co.uk

A HOUSING association has apologised after a Cannock woman was left living in fear of rats outside her home for four months.

Amy Snape first contacted South Staffordshire Housing Association (SSHA) in January after rats from a nearby brook were spotted in a bush outside her front door. The rats had been attracted to communal bins used by residents at Riverside Court, Gorton Road, with up five at a time spotted by Miss Snape. Following her first complaint SSHA came out to inspect the area but despite them agreeing to remove the bush, which had rat nests contained in it, a disgruntled Miss Snape was forced to do this herself last week. SSHA has apologised for the delay and will now send Pest Control to treat the area on a weekly basis until the problem is resolved. But Miss Snape said the service received by the housing association up to now had been very poor. "I have complained to South Staffs Housing on a number of occasions and nothing has actually been done to solve the problem," the 28-year-old said. "They've been no help whatsoever. I have a real phobia of rats and since all this started I have had nightmares about rats in my property. I do not want to live in fear." Miss Snape, who lives on the ground floor of the Riverside Court block, said that SSHA had agreed with Pest Control to write up a contract stating that the area should regularly be attended to. "This has not been done," Miss Snape added. "As I live the closest to the brook and bins I am getting the worst of the problem. I pay a maintenance charge each month but they're just not bothered in helping me out." Jan Goode, director of customer services at South Staffordshire Housing Association said they would reimburse Miss Snape for any costs she had incurred. "When we were first made aware of the issues at Riverside Court we arranged for pest control to treat the area," she said. "We have now been advised that this did not resolve the problem and we apologise for not following this up sooner. The plants along the stream will be cut back and the other planted areas cleared. The bin area and bins will be disinfected and cleaned regularly. We hope this will resolve the situation." Residents had already feared a rodent infestation after up to rats were spotted in the grounds of St Luke's Church. Cannock Chase Council spokesman Jamie Summerfield said the authority's Environmental Health team had been in contact with the church.

Fun day will aid Dogs for Disabled

A CANNOCK-based forklift truck company will be boosting the fortunes of a charity tomorrow (Friday).

Briggs Equipment is hosting a variety of fundraising activities to swell the coffers of the Dogs for the Disabled charity.

The event will take place at the firm's base in Orbital Way, Cannock. Activities will kick off in the morning, with the Big Dog's Breakfast in the firm's canteen, where all change from food purchases will be donated.

This will be followed by a Dogsbody auction, involving the employees bidding for a director as their dogsbody for the morning.

Dogs for the Disabled is a charity that deals with the training of assistance dogs for children and adults with physical disabilities, as well as families with a child with autism.

Richard Close, Briggs Equipment's CEO, said "Every year we support a charity and run a whole host of fundraising days throughout the year."

"We hope to raise enough money so we can get a good head start on our goal for the year of funding the development of dogs being trained to transform the lives of disabled people."

Other activities include a bring and buy sale, big dog quiz and 'muff' day with staff wearing anything orange, with a colouring competition for children, silly dog photo competition and the naming of a boy and girl dog from the charity.

Land sold by UK Coal from old mine site

UK Coal has sold hundreds of acres of land from its former colliery site in Rugeley.

The coal business has been selling off surplus agricultural and other land to cut its debts. It has now sold 279 acres of land from the former Lea Hall Colliery site in Sandy Lane to a mystery buyer. It is not yet known how much the land went for.

The sale was handled by its property business, Harworth Estates, along with the sale of 590 acres of agricultural land at Stockley Hill, Lancashire.

UK Coal sold 1,500 acres of land nationwide in the first three months of the year, raising £10.5 million.

The sale comes weeks after UK Coal reported it had made an "unacceptable" £124.6m loss last year.

Dam repairs see railway takings down

BOSSSES at Chasewater Railway say they have lost thousands in takings due to the £3m restoration of the nearby Chasewater Dam.

They said the huge dam project was holding up the day-to-day running of the rail line.

Lichfield District Council and contractors Galliford Try are looking to bring in more workmen in the hopes of getting the railway line reopened by the next Bank Holiday weekend.

Dam contractors have had to remove some of the tracks as part of their work and the railway has stopped charging passengers the full fare as they can no longer use the whole line. Chasewater Railway spokesman Brian Marks said the firm was in discussions with Lichfield District Council to resolve the situation "favourably".

Grateful

Mr Marks said the railway had probably lost thousands in takings and will work out the exact figure after a meeting between executives.

Despite the disruption and financial loss, Mr Marks said railway bosses were grateful that the District Council was doing what it could.

He said: "They have been very good and tried to do all they can for us. They are looking to get it ready so we can re-open the track for the Bank Holiday weekend."

Neil Turner, Lichfield's leisure chief, said the authority had hoped to hand the rail line back for Easter, but said everyone at the council remained grateful for the patience of everyone at Chasewater Railway.

He added: "We've continued work at the causeway and we hope to get the railway back up and running by the Bank Holiday."

New name and uniform for school after decision Sports college set to become an academy

A CHASETOWN secondary school is to become an academy, complete with a new name and uniform.

Chasetown Specialist Sports College, Burntwood, will be called Erasmus Darwin Academy when it converts in July.

School governors voted in favour of change last week following a special meeting and consultation. The school has a few weeks to confirm a last few changes with the Department of Education. It was formally granted an Academy Order on March 28 by Education Minister Michael Gove.

Head Bernice Astling said: "We wish to thank stakeholders for their participation in the consultation on academy status."

"We are delighted with the high level of support that we have gained for this important initiative."

She said name Erasmus Darwin was chosen because he was a great local man who would inspire the pupils. The new uniform is believed to have a gold and black theme.

An academy is a school opted out of council control, benefiting from greater freedoms to innovate and raise standards.

Councillor Liz Staples, Staffordshire County Council's cabinet member for education, said the local authority fully supported each school's decision to become an academy.

Conditions

She said: "It's their choice. We are looking for the best outcome for the children in the area and for keeping up education standards in the county," she said.

She added there were currently 13 schools in the county either applying to become an academy.

Academies have the ability to set their own pay and conditions, freedoms around the delivery of the curriculum and the ability to change the lengths of terms and school days.

Consultation on Blake proposals

CONSULTATION has begun over plans to turn a Hednesford secondary school into a new academy.

A six-week consultation period has begun over the possible closure of Blake Valley Technology College, in Marston Road.

If the move goes ahead, Blake Valley Technology will get £10m of new buildings and it is planned that pupils will transfer to the proposed academy in the same school building without any gaps in their education from September 1.

Staffordshire County Council has already given notice of its intention to close Blake Valley, the former school of TV's The Apprentice runner-up Kate Walsh. She is against the plan to turn the school into an academy and has thrown her weight behind a Chase No Academies campaign.

Councillor Liz Staples, the authority's cabinet member for education, said the move was "a tremendous opportunity". She added a final decision would be made in June.

"The proposed conversion of Blake into an academy represents a tremendous opportunity with the potential to transform the learning environment and will allow greater access to funding," she said.

"The next step towards establishing a new academy is to discontinue the college in its existing form. This will trigger a six-week representation period, meaning the cabinet would consider any representations."

Concert tribute to former collier

A MEMORIAL concert is being held as a tribute to a former miner and chairman of Cannock Urban District Council.

Cannock Chase Orpheus Choir and the Cannock Chase Choral Society will be performing in memory of Jack Sunley.

The concert takes place at St Peter's church, Church Hill, Hednesford, on Saturday, July 16 at 7.30pm. Mr Sunley, who died in February aged 86, led the campaign to get a mining memorial erected in the town.

He was a founder member and chairman of Cannock Chase Mining Historical Society for many years until he had to give up the position due to failing health.

He was also vice-chairman of Chase Art for Public Spaces (CHAPS) and his proudest achievement was seeing the £20,000 8ft miners' lamp memorial put in place in Market Street in 2006.

Mr Sunley was a vice-president of the two choirs.

Tickets for the July concert are £5 and are available from Peter Barker on 01543 275152.

First birthday for store

STAFF and volunteers at a popular Cannock charity shop have marked the store's first birthday.

They raised a glass of bucks fizz and cut a cake to mark the first birthday of St Giles Hospice Furniture Superstore, in Stafford Road.

The shop sells high-quality furniture, including beds, wardrobes, sofas, coffee tables, dining tables and chairs, along with electrical goods and household items to support St Giles' caring services for local people with cancer and other serious illnesses.

The superstore is part of the thriving St Giles shops network stretching across the region.

Lynwen Truesdale, head of retail for St Giles Hospice, said: "Our Cannock superstore is really popular. And, while we are proud of the support our customers give us, the dedication of our staff and volunteers is also a big reason for the shop being such a hit."

Charity bid has backing of stars

A HEDNESFORD man has secured the backing of celebrities Stephen Fry, Sarah Brown and Samantha Fox as he tries to raise awareness of a national charity.

Twitter fanatic Fry tweeted about the Lupus UK charity, which is close to the heart of Bakers Way resident John Hibbs. He managed to get the Q1 host to let his 2.5 million followers know about an awareness day.

IT analyst Mr Hibbs volunteers for the charity that helps his sister and said he was proud to be able to get more awareness of the charity.

"We had more than 3,100 hits that day and almost 7,000 page views on the website," said John, aged 33. "A normal day is around 50 hits."

John wrote to Stephen Fry asking for his support, along with Gordon Brown's wife whom he had previously met in Downing Street. Both tweeted their support for the charity and its World Awareness Day on May 10.

They also obtained the support of Sam Fox, whose mother suffers from the condition.

Earlier this year, John and his wife Kate raised around £2,400 by running the London Marathon.

Lupus UK helps John's sister Viki cope with the condition. She was just 25 when she was diagnosed with Lupus three years ago.

Nursery youngsters and staff mark the Royal Wedding at St John's Church with Joyce Ward, centre

Wedded bliss for nursery children

THE founder member of a Heath Hayes playgroup helped children celebrate the Royal Wedding.

The youngsters from St Johns Nursery, based at the village church, marked the wedding of Prince William and Kate Middleton by dressing up as bride, bridegroom and bridesmaids, while their 'Little Tikes' car was turned into a beautiful bridal carriage which transported the bride to the church.

A nursery spokesman said: "Everyone helped to decorate the room and tables for their wedding party snack and took home their wedding cake."

The congregation was met by a group of ladies from the church, one of them being the founder of St Johns playgroup in 1969, Joyce Ward.

Some 42 years later, the original playgroup has now developed into a nursery, which is open every weekday from 9.15am to 3pm during term time.

For more information on the nursery, contact manager Nicola Sephton on 01543 450740.

Tycoon pays tribute to 60s singer Walker

Beauty's farming awareness bid

by TIM SPIERS

tim.spiers@expressandstar.co.uk

A CANNOCK businessman has paid tribute to a "true entertainer" - John Walker - who died earlier this month.

John was one third of successful Californian 1960s pop act The Walker Brothers, who scored two number one hits in the UK with Make It Easy on Yourself and The Sun Ain't Gonna Shine Anymore.

Born John Maus in 1943, he was a songwriter, guitarist and vocalist in The Walker Brothers.

The band scored three top-10 albums in the 60s and enjoyed a successful reunion in 1976, having split up nine years earlier.

Walker became a regular visitor to Cannock in his later years while touring in England from his Los Angeles home with fellow 60s band The Dakotas.

Fred Pritchard, chairman of Pritchard Group, became good friends with the musician and often put him up at his Ramada Hotel on Orbital Plaza.

Mr Pritchard said he couldn't speak too highly of Walker, who had liver cancer and died aged 67.

"He was, in his manner and demeanour, a true gentleman," said Mr Pritchard.

"And he came out of the pop era where you perhaps wouldn't have expected that."

Walker, who played at the Prince of Wales Centre with The Dakotas in 2007, was also a keen supporter of St Giles Hospice and was in talks to put on a fundraising concert later this year.

"It's very sad that that will never happen," Mr Pritchard added. "He was always optimistic and had a big smile on his face - nothing was ever too much trouble for John.

"It's a sad loss to music because he was still composing songs until recently."

"He was a good man and a true entertainer who I can't speak too highly of."

Walker is survived by his fourth wife, Cynthia, and by two sons and two daughters.

Cheese and wine tasting

A CANNOCK pub is hosting a free wine tasting evening. UK 'wine hero' James Gillespie will be special guest at the cheese and wine night at the bank bar and lounge, in Wolverhampton Road, next Wednesday (May 25), from 8pm

Natalie James, of Handsacre (aged 22) is the new Miss Staffordshire

NEWLY-crowned Miss Staffordshire Natalie James aims to raise awareness about the role of agriculture during her year as the county's top beauty.

Natalie, aged 22, of Handsacre, near Rugeley, won her title at the second time of trying on Saturday (May 14). The final was held at Uttoxeter Racecourse.

She had finished third in her first bid to land Miss Staffordshire title last year. Natalie will now take part in the Miss England final in Birmingham on July 18 and 19.

Natalie works with her father in a family agricultural finance business, which is involved in creating bio fuels, and said she wanted to make people more aware of the important role of farming in the economy.

Natalie, who went to the Friary

School, Lichfield, has a qualification in hair and beauty from Stafford College and said she was looking forward to supporting charities and doing volunteer work during her year.

Natalie said "I've had a great time this year. All the girls have been lovely."

"I'm really looking forward to competing at Miss England now," she said.

Homes approved despite neighbours' objections

COUNCIL bosses have approved plans for two new homes despite concerns from neighbours.

Cannock Chase Council approved the plans for Ironstone Road, Rawnsley, at a meeting last week.

Ironstone Road residents say the new homes will not be in-keeping with the surrounding street scene, will reduce lighting in, and be significantly taller than, nearby houses.

Planning officers recommended approval for the meeting on Wednesday (May 11) and developers will now look at demolishing two existing properties.

In reply to consultation on the plans, residents wrote: "The street scene is 'wrong' for the development. The proposal will block out light for people living in the houses next door; the new houses would 'protrude' back further towards Ironstone Road than the existing houses; and the new homes would be 'significantly taller' than the existing houses."

Planners have included a condition that no work shall be carried out on the four-bedroom detached houses, between March and August when house sparrows and starlings may be nesting.

Officers say layout and orientation ensures no adverse impact on neighbours near the corner of the junction linking Ironstone Road to Longstaff Avenue.

BOOKINGS are now being taken from groups wishing to use community facilities at the new Cannock fire station.

The £4.3m building in Old Hednesford Road, will soon be open for public use.

The station, built as part of Staffordshire Fire and Rescue Service's Private Finance Initiative scheme, will also be used by the public for meetings, tours and even gym workouts.

Firefighters moved into the new building, work on which started in October, earlier this year. It boasts a sprawling appliance bay, gleaming glass entrance and TV room.

Demolition of the former base alongside has now been completed and work on the new training yard and car park is on course for completion in mid-July.

The work is part of a £46m private finance deal which will see the construction of 10 new stations across Staffordshire.

Cannock is the fifth to have been built under the plans and now operates around the clock. The number of firefighters has increased to 28.

Staffordshire Fire Service spokesman Sue Collis said the gym would not be open for individual members of the public.

She said: "The facilities are aimed more at community groups, such as clubs for the elderly, scout groups and schools."

The date for an official opening is due to be announced soon.

Staffordshire's chief fire officer Peter Dartford said: "The old fire station was built in 1962 and was designed to keep members of the public out - this building is exactly the opposite, it's a community facility. Like never before, we will be able to engage and educate the community in a positive, interactive way."

Travellers are dealt blow on expansion bid

THE controversial expansion of a home for travelling showpeople in Great Wyrley has been undone by Government inspectors.

A planning inspector has upheld a decision by South Staffordshire Council that work undertaken on the Kingswood Colliery site has to be reversed, as it encroaches on to green belt land.

The owners of the established site, near the A5, Watling Street, undertook remedial works, but, according to council planners, they laid some of the concrete hardstanding on green belt land which they did not have permission to develop.

The owners were told in 2007 that they had to undertake the remedial works to bring it up to a decent standard by the council.

An enforcement notice was later served by the local authority, which was appealed by Joseph Jenkins.

Pleased

There was a hearing in January, and last Friday (May 13) James Ellis of the Government's Planning Inspectorate upheld the council's original decision.

He concluded that the development represented an "inappropriate development within green belt land".

Andy Johnson, director of planning and strategic services, at South Staffordshire Council said: "We're very pleased with the inspector's findings. The site was expanding and they didn't have permission to do it."

South Staffordshire Council now expects the site owners to take urgent steps to remove the works covered by the enforcement notice.

Support group's birthday

A GROUP set up to support patients with weight problems has celebrated its first birthday.

The Burntwood, Lichfield and Tamworth Support Group was established for people to get together with others in a similar position to share their concerns and knowledge.

The group, set up with the help of South Staffordshire Primary Care Trust dietician Gillian Rudge, has seen membership steadily rise.

Group chairman Chris Bates said: "We have all come a long way in the past 12 months."

Musical comedy debuts

THE premiere of a new musical comedy kicked off in Cannock this week. Here Comes the Bride follows Brian and Katie, their families and friends through their wedding day and the disastrous stag and hen nights.

It is set in the mid-1970s and includes toe-tapping popular songs from the time alongside a farcical storyline.

It is being presented by the Cannock Wood and Gentleshaw Musical Society and has been written by one its members Joanna Woodberry.

Here Comes the Bride is the fifth musical written by Joanna for CWAGMS.

Previous offerings such as Lipstick on your Collar and Revenge of the Snow Queen have all been extremely well received by audiences and cast alike.

Writer Joanna said: "Working with CWAGMS is always great fun and I think we've developed one of our best shows yet."

She added: "I'm hoping that other societies will want to perform the show after CWAGMS, so this is a chance to see it first."

The four-night run of Here Comes the Bride began yesterday (Wednesday).

Performances start at 7.30pm until Saturday (May 21).

Call the box office on 01543 578762 for tickets, priced £8-£10.

Open day at school

AN open day is being held at the independent Chase Academy in St John's Road, Cannock, on Saturday, June 11.

It will run from 11am to 3pm and includes a chance to see facilities including the new music school.

The academy caters for children from nursery to sixth form.

Trust offers advice on volunteers

A WILDLIFE charity which carries out its work with the help of more than 700 volunteers is running a course to show other organisations how to recruit and look after their own vital team of helpers.

Staffordshire Wildlife Trust is assisted by an army of volunteers who carry out tasks from monitoring bird populations to working in the office and helping run outdoor activity sessions for youngsters.

The trust is now offering a two-day course to spread its knowledge of managing volunteers at its Wolsley Centre HQ, in Wolsley Bridge on June 15 and June 16.

Training officer Shelley Arnold said: "Volunteers are absolutely vital in helping us to achieve our aims, and we have lots of experience of working with them."

"Our volunteer management course will show participants how to support, recruit and supervise volunteers within any organisation."

The course costs £160 and proceeds will go into funding the trust's work across the county, which includes looking after 25 nature reserves and carrying out conservation projects.

To book a place, or for details, call Shelley Arnold on 07971046820.

The trust is also running a range of other courses, including sessions for people who work with children and recreational activities.

Lib Dems in vow to make a fresh start

THE Liberal Democrats in Cannock Chase have vowed to make a speedy recovery after suffering big losses in the local elections.

The group was formerly the largest party on the district council but lost six seats in the vote on May 5. The LibDems now have 11 seats on the council, two fewer than the Conservatives. Labour is the biggest party with 17.

The New Lib Dem leader is Rugeley councillor Tony Williams, a long-standing cabinet member and the deputy council leader. He said: "We're going to pick ourselves up, dust ourselves down and start again."

"Obviously we took a backlash for the national party which was tough given how hard we'd worked in the district."

Riders suffer injuries in fall

A HORSE rider was left with a suspected broken leg and another with head injuries after their animals bolted at Cannock Chase.

The women were thrown to the ground after their horses were spooked on a footpath.

Both women are believed to be in their 50s and required hospital treatment.

They were taken by ambulance to Stafford Hospital following the incident near a car park off the A513 at around 11.45am on Wednesday (May 11). Police closed off the road to allow emergency crews to work at the scene.

School writes to celebrities to raise money for seaside trip

Star lots under the hammer for pupils' holiday

Cap signed by golfing ace Luke Donald

SIGNED photographs by Rolf Harris and David Jason, a personal letter by Emma Thompson and a cricket bat from former Prime Minister Sir John Major were all going under the hammer in Cannock this week.

They were just some of the items sent to children at Chadsmoor Junior School after they turned to famous figures to help them raise money for a trip to the seaside.

More than 70 celebrities sent items to the youngsters at Chadsmoor Junior to sell in an auction.

The auction was taking place in the hall at the Burns Street school last night (Wednesday).

The stars were touched by the handwritten pleas from the Year 6 pupils who told them they needed to raise £1,000 for their visit to Llandudno on July 15.

Chilly

One of the most treasured responses was from Oscar-winning actress Emma Thompson who replied with memories of her own first trip to the seaside in Southend, which had been "very chilly" she wrote.

The fundraiser was organised when teachers discovered that some of the children had never seen the sea. TV presenter, artist and musician Rolf sent the pupils a book and photographs while Walsall FC posted a signed ball while Wolverhampton Wanderers autographed a shirt for the pupils.

A cap signed by Ryder Cup winning golfer Luke Donald was also under the hammer.

Headteacher Barbara Herszenhorn and Year 6 teacher Jeff Parkes were thrilled by their windfall.

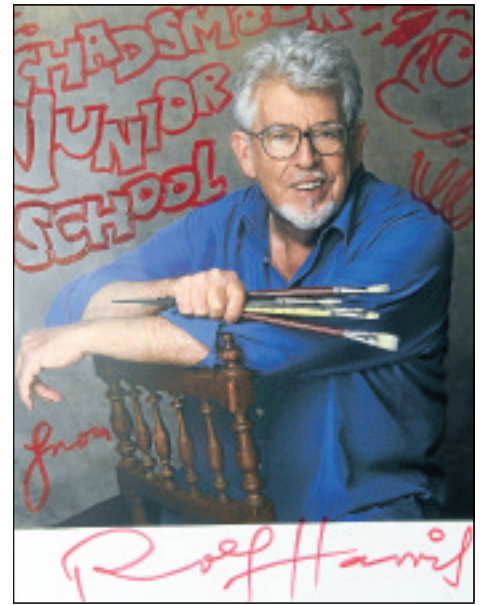

Mr Parkes said: "We started writing to celebrities back in October because we knew it could take a while for people to get back to us."

Pupils on patrol to deliver message to parents

Youngsters join fight on dangerous parking

CHILDREN in Rugeley are being used as front-line troops in the battle to stop parents from driving dangerously and parking illegally outside school.

The youngsters from Redbrook Hayes Primary wore high-visibility jackets and patrolled the roads immediately around their school, delivering advice and issuing warning postcards to offenders.

The initiative, involving pupils aged 10 and 11, was launched at the school, in Talbot Road, Breerton. Following its launch on Monday (May 16), there are plans to roll it out to other schools in the district.

Cannock Chase Council says the new safety campaign is targeting "inconsiderate" motorists.

Spokesman Jamie Summerfield said: "This is a problem generally outside most schools and we're hoping to harness the power of children to get the message across. They will be pointing out that they are putting lives at risk."

The Redbrook Hayes pupils were joined on Monday by a back-up army of official helpers including traffic wardens, police community support officers and road safety officers from Staffordshire County Council and Cannock Chase District Council. They have all joined together under the Staffordshire Safer Roads Partnership.

Driveways

Pupils learned in class how to identify dangerous driving and parking practices in preparation for the 'Ziggy Zaggy' pilot scheme.

They patrolled the roads during the morning and afternoon peak times.

Mr Summerfield said hazardous parking not only caused congestion but also had dangerous side-effects by causing accidents and preventing access for emergency vehicles.

The initiative, which is the brainchild of the county council, police and parking specialist APCOA, has already been trialled successfully at schools in Tamworth.

Children there identified vehicles parked on footpaths, zig-zag or yellow lines, blocking driveways or parked opposite or within 10 metres of a junction.

Children also noted registration numbers in case of repeat offending.

Cannock police have welcomed the initiative.

Pupils Kate Smith (aged 11) and Cameron Meniel (10), together with classmates and members of the Staffordshire Safer Roads Partnership, warn parents about illegal parking outside Redbrook Hayes Primary School, in Breerton

Photographs in full view at exhibition

KEEN photographers can see a special exhibition by some talented artists in Cannock.

The Museum of Cannock Chase, in Valley Road, Hednesford, is hosting the Trent Valley Photographic Society exhibition.

Always a highly popular event, the photographs have been taken during the year and incorporate a wide range of subjects, including wildlife, landscape and portraits.

Nicola Bannister, visitor services officer at the museum said: "It's a fantastic selection of photographs of a range of subjects that are really interesting."

"We have had the exhibition here before and it has always been very well attended. To see local talent from the area and the high quality of their work is very special."

"When we opened it this weekend we had about 70 people come along so that was a great turnout for just one day, and there was a lot of visitors who came just to see this exhibition, so we hope it will be equally successful over the next few weeks."

The exhibition runs until June 19 and is open from 11am until 5pm.

Owner's pledge over future of football club

THE Great Wyrley businessman who has taken over at troubled Halesowen Town has vowed to place the crisis-hit club back at the heart of the community.

Steve Lynch has taken the reins at The Grove, ending the tenure of controversial sibling owners Godfrey and Graham Ingram.

Mr Lynch claimed the non-league club had been a "ship without a captain" and vowed to be hands-on in turning around its fortunes.

The 40-year-old says the club does not carry major debts but urgent improvements to the stadium, in Old Hawne Lane are the top priority. He warned, however, there was no quick fix to Halesowen's problems. "The ground is in a poor state and has been neglected," he said. "I've not come in to dictate. This is a community club that needs community input and it needs help. I want to bring everyone together to restore some hope."

The club, established in 1873, was relegated from the Southern League Premier to Southern League Division 1 Central.

Mr Lynch formally owned the Shamrock Coaches transport firm in Birmingham before taking over the Hazelbrook ground of Great Wyrley FC which he operates for hospitality and conferencing and occasional showpiece football matches.

Proud of a village that always pulls out stops

I WOULD like to tell the people of Norton Canes how proud I am to be serving on the parish council. Over the years I have constantly been made aware of the 'spirit of the Norton folk'. In the early 1970s while appearing with a variety group raising money for the Norton branch of the St. John Ambulance Brigade the local electricity sub-station was vandalised (yes, it happened then as well).

We lost all power at the Community Centre. The locals were not going to miss a show and all the drivers went outside and turned their cars to face the windows, one stationed himself at the front door and shone his lights straight onto the stage.

We completed our 'Mavis and the Melody Girls' production in the improvised spotlight, getting dressed and made up by candlelight.

The Community Centre was a wonderful building, in the 1939 style it could be taken for an aircraft hangar. Although it has been referred to as a 'tin hut' there was not a tin sheet in it. The roof was tar and pitch outside and inside was a wonderful sculpture in tong and groove wood. There was a fully functioning cinema projection facility which was used to show the 'hit pieces' of the day. It also had a thriving judo club, a nursery and very successful tea dance.

It housed the local clinic, many happy couples met, were engaged and held their wedding reception at this popular venue.

The new centre is trying to keep up the standard. Norton has always 'pulled out the stops'. When I was involved in the drama club we became aware of the plight of the Chernobyl children. What they lacked most in the orphanages was soap. We put out an appeal and when community drama played host to two of the children we were able to send them back to Belarus with 650 bars of soap all donated by the caring 'locals'.

Norton has always had scouts, girl guides and brownies as well as girls brigade, St John, judo, football teams and now has a skate park. The library has changed and grown with the needs of the village and now has IT and training facilities and an office for Norton Canes Community Partnership, as well as books.

In other words there is plenty to be proud of in Norton Canes past and present and I am very proud of it.

COUNCILLOR ALISON SPICER

Collection started for MP's sat-nav

I'VE started a collection to buy our MP Aidan Burley a sat-nav, after viewing his expenses for travel costs.

I noticed on many occasions that he's travelled up to 24 miles from Cannock to Rugeley and anything up to 18 miles to Heath Hayes from Cannock.

On September 20, he travelled 46 miles from Cannock to Stafford to visit an unwell executive, and on September 28 he travelled 132 miles from his home in Fulham to Cannock and got his petrol paid twice at a cost of £106.00p.

His total petrol costs from May to December were £3,579.40p, which amounts to 8,005 miles at an average of 30 miles to the gallon - this should only have cost £1,500.93p at £1.25p per litre.

As his total expenses for May to December 2010 were £22,816.06p, this proves he is a typical Tory after just one year in office.

He's losing his way and getting well paid for doing it.

Let us spray as mural unveiled

PUPILS in Norton Canes have unveiled their latest school improvement project. Last year, children at Norton Canes Primary held a sponsored climbing event and raised £1,000. They then put the funds towards creating a giant mural on one of the plain outside walls the School Road school.

A competition was held with the youngsters providing their own ideas for the mural and over the last few weeks the final design was decided on.

Pupils worked with artist Neil Willis from 'Auniquart' who helped bring the winning design to life.

Year Four pupil Tegan Beechey, aged nine, won the contest. Neil then showed the children how to fill in the design and add detail with spray paints.

Head Paul Whitacre said: "This was a good project for many reasons, for instance the children raised the money themselves."

Staff could be transferred to nearby sites Jobs threat as benefit delivery office to shut

A BENEFITS delivery office in Cannock, which employs nearly 200 people, is to close.

The office in Becroft Road, at the back of the JobCentre Plus office, is earmarked for closure in the next 12 months as part of the axing of 2,400 benefits jobs nationwide.

The Public and Commercial Services union (PCS) said 17 benefit-processing sites and five contact centres would be shut nationally, mainly over the next year.

Efforts are being made to redeploy some of the 186 employees from the Cannock office to benefit delivery offices in Wolverhampton or Birmingham that are unaffected by the closures.

A Department for Work and Pensions spokesman said: "Frontline JobCentre Plus services aren't impacted by this and we've made sure that all the staff affected have the option of moving elsewhere in the organisation."

Disappointed

It is understood staff will be offered voluntary redundancy or transfer to other offices but compulsory redundancy has not been ruled out.

Reacting to the news, Cannock MP Aidan Burley said: "Naturally I am disappointed at the closure of the Cannock Benefit Delivery Centre. However I am reassured that all efforts are being made to redeploy affected employees to other nearby offices.

"I am pleased efforts are being made to ensure that these new places of work for local people will be within commuting distance of their homes in Cannock Chase."

Labour leader Councillor George Adamson has arranged an emergency council meeting in a bid to help those affected by the closure.

"I don't feel enough is being done and I am not going to stand by and risk watching so many people lose their jobs," he said.

"A meeting will take place with all the appropriate parties to see what we can do to stop these huge cuts in Cannock."

Brendan comes out fighting thanks to Lionheart trainers

PEOPLE over 40 are being put through their paces at a new fitness and self defence programme in Cannock.

The venture, called Lionheart, is aimed exclusively for over 40s and their families and brings together self defence, martial arts and a fitness programme designed to suit the limitations of a more mature lifestyle. It is also aimed at people with low self-esteem and was launched at the Ultimate Training Centre in Wolverhampton Road.

Businessman Brendan Lees teamed up with self defence coaches Jon Roberts and Vance Idiensi to launch the project.

He said: "Lionheart is a programme that will primarily appeal to everyone who feels threatened by anti-social behaviour on our streets. We don't promote outright aggressiveness but people need to have the confidence to deal with difficult situations."

Under the banner Fighting for a Better Society the training system has been a long-term ambition of Mr Lees, who says he is concerned with the increasing number of assaults of vulnerable people and general fear of crime in the communities. The idea for the Lionheart programme came to Mr Lees while recovering from a heart attack shortly after his 40th birthday.

He also had two breakdowns and came close to committing suicide but claims that martial arts and physical exercise provided him with a self confidence boost and improved his wellbeing. He said: "Lionheart is about keeping people safe, fit and healthy, both in mind and body."

In the run up to the launch, coach Jon Roberts worked with local charities and victim support groups. He also spent time interviewing convicted muggers in an effort to gain insight into the problems of anti-social behaviour.

Mr Roberts, who owns the training centre, said: "The system presents an exciting new opportunity for the over 40s and their families to learn how to safeguard themselves on the streets." Proceeds from the training programme will be donated to charities nationwide which reflect the Lionheart ethos.

More than 100 people attended the launch of the programme and scores have been feeling the benefit ever since.

Nick Hill said: "I've been with Lionheart since the launch and although I have only been training a few weeks now it is hard to believe just how my fitness levels and strength has progressed in such a short space of time."

Sarah Winfield is another regular Lionheart user. She said: "I decided I would like to get fit and learn something new when a friend told me about the Lionheart programme, it sounded perfect."

Streetwise

"The coaches were excellent, they seemed to know exactly what I was capable of, and were very keen to help me achieve my own personal goals."

"I am now achieving more than I thought possible and enjoying every minute," she added. "I am fitter, stronger and much more streetwise, armed with practical knowledge about self protection."

"The Lionheart programme was perfect for me," said Mike Walton. "I wanted to get back into some physical activity and the thought of trying to keep up with people 20 years younger than me was daunting. I am working out with a great group of people who are all working at a level that suits them, I feel much fitter and stronger and I've learned some great practical skills."

Kevin Owen said the coaches had worked with him to inspire strength, honesty and respect.

"The Lionheart programme has given me, a 48-year-old male, fitness, confidence and self defence to a level which I never thought possible," he added.

For more details about Lionheart call 01543 469964.

SOROPTIMISTS

Joy at awards for long service

THREE members of SI Cannock & District were recently presented with long service certificates.

At the group's AGM, outgoing President Ronnie Reynolds was pleased to present a certificate for 20 years of service to Soroptimist International to Lilian Hyde, for 25 years to Betty Howard-Evans and for 40 years of service to Barbara Cooper. All three members were delighted to receive their awards.

Towards the end of the meeting, President Ronnie passed the chain of office to the incumbent Eileen Cryer.

Eileen is finance officer for local company Aura Training. She has been a member of the Cannock Soroptimist club for seven years and has held the post of treasurer as well as serving on the executive council and on programme action groups.

She told the members how pleased she was to be nominated as their President for 2011/12 and promised them an interesting year, with many exciting events and speakers already booked.

Her theme for the year is "Together our hopes can be achieved" and she has chosen St Giles Hospice and the Air Ambulance to benefit from some of the club's fundraising efforts throughout the year.

Waitrose staff speak to club

CHAIRMAN Val Beale greeted everyone to the May meeting with a special welcome for visitor Barbara Cartwright.

She thanked Jenny Dunn for the afternoon tea and quiz and also thanked Kathleen Whitehouse for the beautiful flower arrangement which adorned the top table at the annual celebration lunch and was given to Val. The date of the Joint Probus Lunch at the Terrace Restaurant will be Wednesday July 20. Future events include a strawberry tea and plant swap and an outing to Welshpool.

CANNOCK CHASE LADIES PROBUS CLUB

Speakers for the day were two representatives from Waitrose.

The club meets at the Chase Golf Club every first Thursday. For membership details, call 01543 505107.

Five rewarded for perfect attendance

MAY'S AGM was opened by Sandy Hobbs, president, who welcomed members and gave apologies from those absent.

Mary Russell read the minutes of the April meeting and Eva Dunning gave the financial report.

In the absence of the county adviser, Eva read the resolutions to be debated at this year's annual conference in Liverpool, which members unanimously agreed should be accepted.

Hayes Green member Moira Taylor will be attending the conference on the club's behalf in June. In her address, the president outlined the events of the past year and also thanked everyone for their support, especially members of the committee, who work so hard behind the scenes.

Nominations for the post of president followed, and after the ballot, Mrs Hobbs was duly re-elected.

Five ladies were presented with 100 per cent attendance certificates. They were Pat, Marion, Linda, Mary and Women hear a good yarn

AT the April meeting members were given a talk by Pauline Hardwick entitled "A Yarn about a Yarn".

A yarn is so called if it comes from any animal other than sheep. The word wool is used solely for a sheep's fleece. Members heard about fleeces from other animals including alpacas, llamas, the angora rabbit and angora goat. A collection of the different types of yarn were on display.

At the May meeting two resolutions, the closure of libraries and mega farming were discussed. Members voted to keep the libraries open, but no decision was made on the mega farms.

The evening ended with a blue and green auction.

On June 6 Carole Walker will talk about trichology – the branch of medicine concerned with hair and its diseases. New members are welcome.

Irene. A bring and buy sale was held during the coffee break. Moira had baked a cake to celebrate her birthday. Diane and Sandy were presented with gift vouchers for having the most competition wins during the year. The raffle was won by June Pickerell.

The jumble sale in April raised a record amount and Sandy thanked everyone for their efforts. A visit to the National Trust's back-to-back houses in Birmingham was arranged for May 14, while trips to Bridgemere Gardens, Lichfield Heritage Centre, Netherstowe House for afternoon tea and a picnic on the Chase are all planned.

The monthly luncheon at the Winding Wheel in Heath Hayes was taking place on May 18. The group meets on the first Wednesday of each month at St. John's Church Hall, Heath Hayes, at 7.30pm. Visitors are always welcome.

Hobby with a sting in the tail

CHASE TERRACE LADIES

SPEAKERS for the May 12 meeting were Julie Collins and her husband Len, who told of their hobby that has a "sting in the tail" and which they do for "the buzz" of it – beekeeping.

Len belonged to an after school beekeeping club in the 50s and later in life decided to start again so enrolled on a course. Despite being stung several times and having a swollen face, he finished the course, got a certificate and bought some bees home, despite having no equipment.

They managed to get a basic hive together. Julie also became interested and they now have three hives called Heathrow, Ringway and Stanstead.

Over the years Julie and Len have had setbacks like a house fire in which bees died and the hives were scorched.

Julie and Len are happy to give talks to groups. They can be contacted on 01902 892110.

After her talk Julie mentioned her involvement with youth group Kinver KOSMIC - Kids of South Staffs Making It Count.

Refreshments followed and four new ladies were welcomed: Glenis, Gill, Dot and Rosemary, who won the raffle.

The next meeting is on May 26 at 7.30pm in the meeting room at Sankeys Corner Library.

Bargains galore at charity's new store

BARGAIN hunters can pick up some gems at a new charity shop in Rugeley.

The Salvation Army has launched the Market Square store in a special red carpet ceremony.

The event was attended by local Salvation Army representatives, and new shop manager Craig Davison said there was a good number of shoppers to mark their first day.

The shop's team of staff and volunteers have been preparing for the opening for weeks to make sure all of the best bargains went on sale for the opening day on Thursday (May 12).

Special items of stock include brand-named handbags, shoes, DVDs and CDs.

Crowds waited for the doors to open before managing to make the most of the bargains.

Craig said: "It was a great day. We were extremely busy in the morning and it was great to see."

"We have some great items in the store for our shoppers, but we are always looking for more," he added.

"I really hope this shop is a continued success."

Pop Idol winner in cultural exchange

Koop Arponen

A SCANDINAVIAN Pop Idol winner is visiting the region on a cultural exchange.

Koop Arponen, a Finnish singer-songwriter and winner of the country's Pop Idol series in 2008, will be in Staffordshire to film a cultural documentary.

He will bring with him eight Finnish children from the picturesque town of Pihlajavesi.

They will visit Lichfield, Rugeley and the Moorlands village of Ilam, where they will meet children from three different Lichfield Diocesan schools and compare the history and cultural differences between Finland and the UK.

Mr Arponen said "It is essential that children are given the opportunity to experience different cultures and are encouraged to work and learn alongside people from different backgrounds."

"When I was a nipper, we moved around a lot due to my dad's line of work. Learning to adapt to different cultures as a child has helped me overcome many obstacles later on in life. I am hoping this trip will give these children a wonderful insight into how other societies work and learn."

The stay over will run from Wednesday 25 May to Tuesday 31

May, and includes visits to St Michael's C of E Primary in Lichfield and Churchfield C of E Primary School in Rugeley.

This will give the Finnish pupils an insight into the British schooling system.

Eight pupils from St Michael's and Churchfield will then join their Finnish counterparts at their residential stay at Dove Dale House, Ilam, where they will work with locals to help prepare for the annual Dove Dale fete on May 30.

Churchfield head Linda Hack said: "This is an exciting opportunity for the children to learn about each other, to broaden their horizons and to form new friendships."

Disabled Jo hopes op will relieve daily pain

Joanne Day

A DISABLED former Cannock student, who has a rare condition which makes her muscles spasm, is to undergo surgery.

Joanne Day suffers from dystonia, which was triggered by a fall she had as a teenager when she broke her elbow while roller skating.

The neurological disorder leaves her body contorted. Jo, formerly of Cannock Chase High School, who now lives in Weston-under-Lizard.

The 37-year-old has had more than 45 operations, but she hopes this month's latest one will relieve the daily pain she endures.

"This operation is to try and get my leg down as it is pretty much fixed to my chest," she said.

"My knee is up by my chest and it's bent up. It will be a big operation on my hip and knee."

Proud

"I have to get my leg down and hopefully this will do it, it is just the wait now though," she said.

"I am happy that someone is going to try and help. I have considered my operation carefully and deeply but I can't keep on living like this. It is very painful." The operation will take place on May 25 at Birmingham's Queen Elizabeth hospital.

Earlier this year, Joanne was proud that her dog Kaiser won a Friends for Life award at the Crufts dog show. It celebrates a dog's bravery and devotion to their owners.

Three-year-old Kaiser gives Jo independence and the confidence to leave the house and meet new people and helps with everyday tasks such as dressing, unloading the washing machine and picking things up.

Despite her condition, Jo has a first-class honours degree in biomedical science and a masters degree in physiotherapy.

QUALITY CARE FROM A LOCAL TEAM

We are a local at-home care company which specialises in caring for people in their own homes and are proud to have been providing our services here in Cannock for 12 months.

Although we specialise in the care of older people, our services can be provided to anyone over the age of 18, as well as older people with health or mobility problems, with Alzheimer's and anyone with physical or learning disabilities.

Our office provides care services across the Cannock Chase area including the towns of Wheaton Aston, Rugeley and Penkridge and we are one of almost 100 offices across the UK and 900 offices worldwide.

Fran Sayer is the owner of our office; she had worked for a number of years in management and more recently in the care sector as Director of Community Relations for large group of bespoke care homes. She was looking for a career change and a role which would take her to the heart of the local community.

Fran noticed that there were many elderly people who were not ready to give up their home and move to a care environment. When asking why they were considering this move, the answer was usually that they could not find the quality of homecare that they wanted or the range of services that would enable them to remain independent within their own home.

We are part of a global award winning company yet each office is run and operated by local people who know and understand the local community. As a result the care that we deliver is of the highest standard and we know that we are having a really positive impact on people's lives. We provide bespoke care, tailored to each individual's needs. This means that the care is provided when you want it (not in time slots to suit us) and we match our clients and caregivers so that they share interests in common. Our calls are a minimum of one hour duration, allowing our caregivers to spend quality time with their clients and giving our caregivers great job satisfaction.

With the population ageing at an unprecedented rate, and cutbacks in care provided by social services, demand for Home Instead's special blend of care is increasing and we are constantly on the look out for caring and compassionate people to join our team.

Home Instead Senior Care is part of a well respected organisation and the work our team does is making a real difference in people's lives. We are part of a company which is changing the way care is delivered in the UK and are rapidly building a reputation as one of the UK's leading care companies.

Our service is tailored to the needs of individual clients and ranges from companionship, meal preparation, light housekeeping, post-discharge care, personal care, medication reminders, shopping and errands. The service is totally flexible to meet client needs and is available from as little as 1 hour to 24 hours a day, seven days a week.

For more information on joining the team or on the services provided, please call the Cannock office on

Extra jobs in the frame at window firm

A CANNOCK windows business is creating a dozen new jobs after securing bank backing to expand its retail stores arm.

Rapid Frame makes uPVC windows and has enjoyed significant growth since it was launched 14 years ago, expanding to employ 48 people.

Part of this has been through developing its own Formula One range and opening a showroom in Donnington, Telford.

Now it has announced plans to expand the operation with a new showroom in Shrewsbury after securing financial backing from NatWest Commercial Banking and RBS Invoice Financing.

Martin Corcoran, managing director of Formula One and Rapid Frame, said: "When we first established Formula One in Telford we knew we had the right site, in the right area, selling the right products, and we have been delighted with the way the business has taken off."

"The company was founded on the principle of always putting quality and our customers' requirements first by maintaining full control of orders from start to finish. This has helped us to not only thrive, but also grow over the last 13 years into the successful business and brand we are today."

"We want to create sustainability over the next 10 years and develop a minimum of four more show sites," he added.

The financial package to support the development of Formula One, expanding its retail operations, and the Formula One range, was put in place by Mark Winter-Wright, senior commercial manager at NatWest, together with Joe Vasey from RBS Invoice Finance.

Mark Winter-Wright said: "I was delighted when the bank was approached by Martin and his colleagues at Formula One, and even more so that we were able to help."

National Hair Federation Midland Colourist of the year Kim Elwell with an image of her winning entry

Colourist Kim turns on style

A CANNOCK has proved she is a cut above by being named Colourist of the Year by the National Hair Federation.

Kim Elwell, aged 42, who has four hair salons - Escape Trilogy, in Wolverhampton Road, Cannock; Studio Three, in Hednesford, Escape, in Bloxwich, and Escape Hair Studio, High Green, Cannock - was handed the award at a ceremony in Coventry.

Mrs Elwell was delighted to be the first recipient of the award which was only introduced in the Midlands this year.

The successful colourist is no stranger to success, having represented Great Britain internationally for many years specialising in long-hair fashion.

Mrs Elwell says the recognition has helped business, adding: "I'm well chuffed, it gives you more work and I get asked to do seminars."

Latin dance fever hits the town

CANNOCK Park will come alive with Latin fever next month when a zumba festival comes to town.

Two district zumba instructors, Maggie Palmer and Scott James, will be putting dancers through their paces on Sunday, June 5 from 11am-1pm.

The free event, organised by Cannock Chase Council and supported by the Cannock Chase Commissioning Consortium, aims to show how dance is a fun way to keep fit. Louise Rose, from Cannock Chase Council's community wellbeing team, said: "Dance is a brilliant way to keep fit and have fun."

"There are a huge amount of classes taking place all over our district and the attendance at local zumba classes is amazing."

"Beginners are welcome and the event is targeted at all abilities. The aim is to enjoy yourself, have fun and get fit."

Call Louise Rose on 01543 462621.

Emergency services at the scene of the accident in Eastern Way

thechronicle

Quad biker is hurt in crash

A QUAD bike rider was airlifted to hospital after an accident on a busy Cannock road. Traffic was halted in both directions to allow the helicopter to land beside the A460 Eastern Way on Thursday (May 12).

Police say the rider crashed into a metal road sign near the Premier Inn. The victim, believed to be in his 40s, suffered a serious leg injury and suspected broken bones. He was initially treated by the roadside before being airlifted to the Queen Elizabeth Hospital in Harborne, Birmingham.

The rider had been heading downhill towards the Orbital island when he lost control of the bike at around 12.45pm.

Midland Air Ambulance spokesman Claire Thomas said his injuries were not thought to be life-threatening.

Police briefly closed off one lane of the southbound carriageway while emergency services worked at the scene.

MP voicing 'incinerator alley' fears

SOUTH Staffordshire MP Gavin Williamson has called on the county council to reject controversial plans to build a giant incinerator on a landfill site in Cannock.

The Conservative MP, whose constituency includes Great Wyrley, Cheslyn Hay and Huntington, fears the A5 would be turned into "incinerator alley" after approval was already given for another plant at Four Ashes, near Wolverhampton.

The MP says the impact an incinerator would have on residents, and particularly the large increase in traffic it would bring, was unacceptable.

The new proposed incinerator at the Poplars in Cley Road, Cannock, would burn up to 400,000 tons of non-hazardous waste a year and generate 34 megawatts of electricity – enough to power 8,000 homes.

Mr Williamson is concerned that if the plant gets the go-ahead there will be two incinerators within a very small area.

"We already have one major incinerator development just off the A5 and we certainly do not want another," he said. "If this development gets the go ahead, I have a great fear that the A5 is going to be turned into incinerator alley which would be bad for all concerned."

Traffic

"It is my belief that this incinerator should not be allowed to go ahead as it is right next door to a residential development and it will cause a massive increase in the amount of traffic on the A5 and also potentially through Great Wyrley heading to Walsall."

He added: "We do not want this beautiful area to become an eyesore for so many residents and a dumping ground for all of the West Midlands' waste."

Four Ashes is to power Featherstone jail, the i54 Business Park at Fordhouses, and more than 32,000 homes.

A grand night in aid of Macmillan nurses

ARUGELEY club played host to a charity night and raised £1,120.

The Lea Hall Social Club, in Sandy Lane, held the evening in aid of Macmillan Nurses.

Entertainment came from West Midlands singing duo The 2 Chicks, while a charity draw was also held.

Lea Hall Social Club, in Sandy Lane, has 2,500 members. Club secretary Ray

Betteridge said: "We are pleased to help Macmillan Cancer Support as lots of people across Rugeley are affected by cancer."

"Lea Hall Club members are extremely generous and Macmillan Nurses do great work."

Recruitment firm on the up with new base

by TIM SPIERS

tim.spiers@expressandstar.co.uk

A CANNOCK business which recently posted record turnover figures has expanded with a new office in Bolton.

Bromak, a recruitment specialist based at Watling Court, Orbital Plaza, will employ 20 people at the 3,000 sq ft office.

Last year the firm, which was established in 2003 and also has a branch in Sheffield, turned over £7 million – an increase of 20 per cent on the previous year.

It offers temporary and permanent recruitment to organisations such as FHM, Three Valleys Housing, ISG, Eric Wright, Bramall, Mears, Bovis, Bullock and Interserve.

The firm's managing director, David Brooks, said the Bolton office was just the first step in their expansion.

Patch

"We have plans to further increase our workforce across the business in the next 12 months while increasing our turnover to £9 million," he said.

"The construction industry has been through a rough patch but our success is derived from our knowledge of the industry and from delivering a consistently high level of service to our clients. We only recruit consultants that have worked in the sector so therefore can offer a genuine knowledge and a commitment to help our clients make a difference to the built environment."

The company has nearly doubled its office space with the move from its previous Bolton headquarters and has recruited seven new employees in the past 12 months.

Mr Brooks added: "The recovery of the UK construction industry, the strength of the housing market and the commencement of major infrastructure projects underpins the future growth of the UK's economy."

"Like construction, the UK's recruitment industry has also had some difficult years but it is clear that supplementing your core permanent workforce with skilled and qualified workers employed through an agency can offer increased flexibility and significant cost savings."

Bromak works with private and public sector organisations across the UK from its offices in Sheffield and Cannock as well as its new office in Bolton.

Vision is clear for a Willenhall company

ENERGYSEAL Ltd, of Wolverhampton, is leading the way in the window, door and conservatory trade.

Coming through a major recession and credit crunch, they have seen figures rise, month after month, making it the biggest conservatory supplier in the Midlands.

EnergySeal Premier A1 window and conservatory systems are manufactured using the leading uPVC SynerJy profile, as well as having energy efficient glass and state-of-the-art locking systems.

The company manufactures all its products at the factory based at Planetary Road, Willenhall – just five minutes from the Bentley Bridge complex.

Visit the showroom near Bentley Bridge, Willenhall to see one of the UK's most impressive conservatory displays.

The showroom features six

EnergySeal Ltd's director, David Carter, started the company 10 years ago with his brother Richard full size conservatories where visitors can relax and choose, safe in the knowledge that they won't be pestered or pressurised by salespeople.

Company director David Carter says: "My brother and I went into business together 10 years ago, working from home selling a few uPVC doors and windows.

"Since then we have expanded every year and now boast to be the biggest manufacturers in the business.

"Being a family run business helps us develop year in, year out, keeping everything close knit with no middle man to call the shots.

"I deal with the general public and Richard deals with the trade. So when any enquiries come through to the sales office you are dealing with the company director from the off."

David and Richard also include their wives in the company with leading roles.

Zoe, David's wife, looks after all the enquiries coming through the showroom on a daily basis and Jane, Richard's wife, manages the insulation department alongside Adrian Jackson, the other company director.

This month only, the company has some fantastic offers, including a 3m x 3m conservatory with electric pack from £4,999; any front or back door from as little as £399 and is also running a no deposit offer, so the customer doesn't pay a penny until all the work has been carried out and they are completely satisfied with the end product.

The company is also offering a 10-year insurance backed guarantee which is covered by the Independent Warranty Association (IWA).

EnergySeal Ltd manufactures all windows, doors and conservatories on site at their large factory showroom in Planetary Road. If you're thinking of undertaking any work on your home, either give EnergySeal a call on 01902 866000 or pop into the showroom and chat to their friendly sales staff, who can offer some of the best advice in the industry.

Gruelling treks will bolster Liam's fund

THE parents of a popular Cheslyn Hay teenager, who died from meningitis, are gearing up to depart for a gruelling 201 mile charity trek.

Andy and Georgina Keeling will do Meningitis UK's Bordering on a Vaccine Walk around Northern Ireland's coast, setting off from Derry next Saturday (May 28).

The walk, in memory of their son Liam, will see the duo hike an average of 22 miles a day over nine days to help raise funds for the charity's vaccine research work.

Football mad Liam was a student at Cardinal Griffin RC High School and a fan of Walsall FC. He died from meningitis in October 2009, aged 13.

Since then more than £70,000 has been raised and for their poignant mission Georgina and Andy hope to collect a further £3,000.

Andy, 51, of Cheslyn Hay, said: "I am looking forward to it. It will be quite undertaking walking that far everyday with little respite but it seemed like a fitting challenge to do in Liam's memory."

Shoppers

Anyone wishing to sponsor the couple can send a cheque made payable to Meningitis UK to Barclays Bank PLC, 62 Wolverhampton Street, Willenhall, WV13 2NQ or donate directly by visiting www.meningitisuk.tributefunds.com and searching for Liam Keeling.

Meanwhile, generous shoppers helped boost the coffers of the fundraising drive.

A bucket collection in West Bromwich town centre last Saturday (May 14) raised even more money for the appeal.

Friends were in the town centre as West Brom took on Everton. And today (Thursday), Liam's football coach Shaun Flaherty and four friends, who all support Albion, will embark on a fundraising bike ride.

They will cycle 200 miles from The Hawthorns to Newcastle United's St James' Park ground, arriving in time for the Baggies' final match of the season.

Mr Flaherty said: "Everyone has been so generous, it is amazing."

Damon backs Alastair through Payne barrier

Alastair Payne

Damon Albarn

A CHART-topping pop star has backed a Cannock businessman's epic 145 mile running challenge by donating cash to his chosen charity.

Grammy Award winner Damon Albarn has scored no less than 18 top 10 hits in the UK singles chart as frontman with Blur and then Gorillaz. He has made a sizeable donation to Alastair Payne, owner of the bank bar and lounge in Wolverhampton Road.

The pair worked together in the 1990s, when Alastair was Blur's merchandise manager. Damon has kept his donation confidential but he is one of many generous supporters who have now enabled Alastair to go beyond his £6,000 fundraising target for St Giles Hospice as he attempts to run 145 miles along the Grand Union Canal towpath.

Donations are now close to the £6,500 mark.

Alastair, aged 44, and friend Dave Hicks will be running non-stop from Birmingham to Little Venice in London along the Grand Union Canal towpath on July 25 and 26.

Cannock Poundland manager Ian Hogg will also be running the equivalent of two marathons over the two days. The official race is on May 28 and 29 but Alastair missed out when lots were drawn so decided to run the route himself.

Alastair, who lives in Hednesford, says he was delighted by Damon's donation but wanted to thank not only him everyone who had donated to the cause.

He said: "I have known Damon for many years but I was blown away by his donation. I am so grateful not just to him but to the many people who have donated to the cause. I set myself a target of £6,000 and this has been achieved already. People have been so generous and I want to thank everyone who has pledged money."

Alastair has completed seven marathons and is also a top amateur cyclist, having ridden 100 miles for the Prostate Cancer Charity Your Ride.

Walk tribute to baby Kieran

Danielle Jones and John Shore host the walk in Cannock Park in memory of their baby son Kieran

A CANNOCK couple who lost their baby to cot death organised a walk to raise awareness and cash.

Danielle Jones and John Shore, who lost two-month-old Kieran in November, organised the walk in Cannock Park in his memory, for a foundation which studies infant deaths.

Danielle, aged 19, of Cannock Road said she hoped the walk would help raise the charity's profile and raise money for research.

"It is our way of paying tribute to him and other babies and to send the message out about this silent killer," she said.

The event was one of more than 65 being held across the country at the same time by supporters of the Foundation for the Study of Infant Deaths.

Jobs boost as pub turned into vets

FIVE jobs are to be created when a Rugeley pub is transformed into a vets.

The Britannia, in Brereton Road, has been boarded up for more than two years but that is all set to change next month with the arrival of a new vets.

A Lichfield-based vet is transforming the 1930s building to create an animal practice, specialising in small animals, called No1 Vets.

The vets will be run by James Cadwallader who has worked in Lichfield for the past 10 years.

The practice will initially take up the ground floor of the old pub and will feature X-ray facilities, consultancy rooms and an operating theatre.

No1 Vets financial controller John Cadwallader, who is James's father, said the vets would look to expand and take on more staff if the business was a success.

He said the exterior of the pub would remain much the same, preserving The Britannia's distinctive look.

He said: "The existing building had everything we were looking for."

"Rugeley has a strong people base, and we obviously wanted to be within six miles of Lichfield."

The planning application, lodged with Cannock Chase Council, required change of use permission from pub premises to a veterinary centre.

What to see and do in Liverpool

Restaurant: The star of the Liverpool foodie scene is restaurant and deli Lunya, on College Street, which has won several accolades as the north-west's best new eatery. Liverpoolian chef Peter Kinsella opened the Catalan restaurant after spending time in Barcelona and he brings an exciting twist to traditional tapas dishes, including Catalan Scouse, a mash of lamb, chorizo, and tomato. The delicious Iberico ribs in an orange Catalan sauce are divine. See www.lunya.co.uk or call 0151 906 9770.

The Yellow Duckmarine: A unique way to tour the city, trundle around in a Second World War amphibious landing craft and splashdown into Albert Dock for a mini-cruise of the docks. Enjoy the lighthearted commentary from your guide. My favourite of his quips: "I've always been told that the docks are quiet, we've had lead free roofs for years." Call 0151 708 7799 or visit www.theyellowduckmarine.co.uk.

The Beatles Story: A 'must do' for all fans of the Fab Four, at Albert Dock, telling the story from their 1950 childhood to the days of Beatlemania. There's lots of artefacts from John, Paul, George and Ringo, a recreation of The Cavern, a Yellow Submarine, and a huge Beatles mural. The tour is available in 11 languages. The Fab 4D movie at The Pier Head, an animated film featuring a few Beatles tunes, is brief, expensive and unimpressive – don't bother. See website www.beatlesstory.com. Visit the new Cavern in Matthew Street, way below street level in the same complex of cellars that housed the original Cavern club, where Beatles tribute bands play and ale is on tap. Admission is free during the afternoon.

The Maritime Museum: An excellent museum highlighting the city's historic maritime as well as with fascinating displays of the famous transatlantic liners, including The Titanic, and Liverpool's significant role in the Second World War, including scary looking bombs that were dropped on the city. Next door is the thought-provoking International Slavery Museum, also free admission.

For art lovers there is modern art at The Tate Gallery and a mix of old and new by the back-in-vogue rap Raphaela at the Walker Art Gallery in William Brown Street. The Walker is free, some visiting exhibitions charge at the Tate.

Coming soon: Near the Pier Head the finishing touches are being put to the impressive modern structure that will host the new Museum of Liverpool, the latest iconic building for Liverpool's waterfront. The new museum will mostly show close-up views of the city, from the Mersey Estuary, the city, the birds, it opens on 19 Feb. For more information on Liverpool's museums, see www.liverpoolmuseums.org.uk/ website.

The hotel is reasonably close to Lime Street railway station and there is a secure public car park at the end of the street (discount available for hotel residents).

Base2stay is only a few minutes' walk from the revamped docks area with its array of museums, restaurants and bars, and even closer to the shopper's paradise of Liverpool One and the Beatles quarter in the area around Mathew Street.

The hotel is full of Merseyside events but check out their website www.base2stay.com – for special offers and deals. Prices start around £49 per room, and around £149 for the family garden suite.

Call 0151 2626 01 or email the info@base2stay.liverpoolm.com.

John Leyton and the Flames

60s IDOL TO ROCK BACK THE CLOCK

SIXTIES pop idol John Leyton is the star of the show when Rock Back the Clock comes to Lichfield. Leyton is celebrating 50 years in the business, a successful career which included number one hit Johnny Remember Me.

Other major hits Wild Wind, Son this is She and Lonely City also put Leyton on the music map.

He featured in many films including The Great Escape and Von Ryan's Express, alongside such all-time greats as Frank Sinatra, Steve McQueen, Richard Attenborough and Charles Bronson.

Leyton will be joined on stage by The Flames and special guest Mike Berry, who recorded A Tribute to Buddy Holly and The Sunshine Of Your Smile with his band The Outlaws.

Rock Back the Clock will be at the Lichfield Garrick on Sunday (May 22) at 7.30pm.

Tickets cost £18.50 and can be booked online at www.lichfieldgarrick.com or by calling the box office on 01543 412121.

Guildhall spring season at an end

LICHFIELD ARTS closes its spring season this weekend with a swinging show of songs of the pioneering Django Reinhardt.

Evan Christopher's Django la Creole will reel off the Reinhardt classics on Saturday (May 21) at the Lichfield Guildhall, in Bore Street.

Christopher is regarded as the world's finest clarinetist and will be supported by David Blenkhorn, Dave Kelbie and Sebastien Girardot.

Audiences can expect to hear European Gypsy Swing and the rhythms of New Orleans, Brazil and the Caribbean in the traditions of Sidney Bechet and Barney Bigard. Belgian-born Reinhardt, who died in 1953 aged 43, was famous for reinventing jazz in the 1930s with a new style of jazz-guitar.

Chris Francis from Lichfield Arts said: "This will be a great end to our spring season with their fresh and virtuosic interpretations of classic jazz."

"This will be a wonderful way to get ready for the Lichfield Real Ale, Jazz & Blues Festival in June"

The concert starts at 8pm and tickets are priced £14 for adults, £13 for concessions and £7 for students.

Visit www.lichfieldarts.org.uk to book or call the box office on 01543 262223.

The Manfreds bring the sounds of the 60s to the Garrick Theatre on Thursday, May 26

If You Gotta Go, Go Now ... to see the Manfreds

ACCLAIMED 1960s favourites The Manfreds are sure to get audiences on their feet at the Lichfield Garrick next week.

Born from the ashes of Manfred Mann – the original group which split in 1969 – The Manfreds call on dozens of hits from their collective individual careers and of course some Manfred Mann classics.

Original frontman Paul Jones is still with the group with his unique harmonica sound and he's joined by Mike Hugg on keyboards, Tom McGuinness on lead guitar, Rob Townsend on drums, Marcus Cliffe on bass and Simon Currie on saxophone.

Manfred Mann originally formed in 1963 and enjoyed chart success with 5-4-3-2-1, Sha la la, Do Wah Diddy, Oh No Not My Baby, The One in the Middle, If You Gotta Go, Go Now, Just Like a Woman, The Mighty Quinn and Ragamuffin Man. South African-born Manfred Mann was the group's founding member, alongside Mike Hugg.

When the group disbanded he founded Manfred Mann's Earth Band while other members continued to tour under the name The Manfreds.

A spokesman for the Lichfield Garrick said: "Since The Manfreds re-formed in 1991, they have been in constant demand throughout the world, which is understandable considering the number of top ten hits they had, not only with The Manfreds, but also individually."

The Manfreds will be at the Garrick next Thursday (May 26) from 7.30pm. Tickets are £30 and can be booked from the box office on 01543 412121. Alternatively order online at www.lichfieldgarrick.com

Satisfaction guaranteed

A ROLLING STONES tribute act celebrates its 20th anniversary with a brand new tour, Exhale on Main Street.

Performed by The Counterfeit Stones, the show is a musical mockumentary which charts the Stones' colourful history from 1962.

It travels through five memorable decades; chronologically charting the very best that Jagger, Richards and co had to offer.

The show also features a series of spoof film clips of the events that turned The Rolling Stones into one of the world's most successful acts.

Their most famous hits include (I Can't Get No) Satisfaction, Paint It Black, Start Me Up, Brown Sugar and Jumpin' Jack Flash.

Tickets for The Counterfeit Stones – Exhale on Main Street cost £19.50.

The band will be at the Lichfield Garrick Theatre in Castle Dyke, next Friday (May 27), starting at 7.30pm.

To book call 01543 412121 or visit www.lichfieldgarrick.com

Corrie's Candice joins the cast of Naked Truth

Nikki Sanderson, ex-Corrie

Brookside's Sarah White

FORMER Coronation Street star Nikki Sanderson has been added to the cast of critically acclaimed play The Naked Truth, which comes to Cannock next week.

Sanderson, who played Candice Stowe in the ITV soap from 1999 to 2005, replaces Liberty X singer Michelle Heaton in the role of Gabby.

Since leaving the Street Sanderson has appeared in New Street Law, Holby City, Cold Blood and Celebrity X Factor.

Joining her in the revamped cast is ex-Brookside favourite Sarah White.

Known to millions for her depiction of Bev McLoughlin, who had an on-off relationship with Ron Dixon, White was named Best Comedy Actress Award at the British Soap Awards in 1999. She and Sanderson will be joined by Maureen Nolan, Leanne Jones and Julie Buckfield in The Naked Truth, which is labelled as a poignant and uplifting comedy and a call to all women.

Five very different women struggle to conquer pole dancing for a charity event to raise awareness and money for breast cancer.

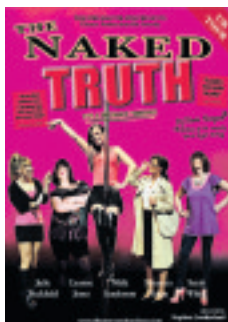

As their stories unfold and unravel, they share laughter and tears in a show described as Calendar Girls and Stepping Out in one.

The Naked Truth is at the Cannock Prince of Wales Centre on Friday 27 and Saturday 28 May.

Tickets are £17.50 for adults and £16 for concessions. To book call the Prince of Wales box office on 01543 578762.

LOUIS THEROUX: MIAMI MEGA JAIL

BBC2, 9.00pm

Part one of two. Louis Theroux examines life in Miami County Jail, where most of the inmates are awaiting trial. He begins by exploring the large cage-like dwellings on the fifth and sixth floor, which are home to many of the most volatile prisoners. The inmates' lives are governed by a gladiatorial code, leading to fights for food and status - a situation the guards say they are powerless to address. The concluding part will be shown on Sunday May 29.

Black Country Communion's second album is out next month

Black Country misses out on Communion

HEAVY rock supergroup Black Country Communion, who made their UK concert debut last Christmas at Wolverhampton Civic Hall, release their second album next month.

The band fronted by Cannock-raised rock star Glenn Hughes was an instant success with its self-titled debut album, which draws on traditional hard rock values, released in September last year.

It stormed to No1 in the UK Rock Album Chart.

The group also features American blues-rock guitar hero Joe Bonamassa, Dudley-born drummer Jason Bonham (son of the late Led Zeppelin stickman John Bonham), and American keyboardist Derek Sherinian.

The new album, entitled 2, is released across Europe on June 13 by Mascot Records. Bonamassa also recently released his 12th album, called Dust Bowl.

Black Country Communion have a short UK tour in July but don't include any West Midlands dates, the nearest being Manchester Academy on July 30.

However, Glenn Hughes will be in concert at Birmingham Town Hall on Sunday, May 29, highlighting music from his solo career plus his back catalogue with Trapeze and Deep Purple.

Tickets cost £22 (plus booking fee) available on 0121 780 3333.

Reviews

The City Madam.

Swan Theatre, Stratford

THE FEAR of financial ruin and loss of social status permeates Philip Massinger's 380-year-old romp, giving this savage comedy a sharp contemporary edge.

The Royal Shakespeare Company has gathered a formidably talented group of actors at the Swan (many of them also appearing in Gregory Doran's Cardenio) and they relish this ruthless and rollicking satire on a society riven by rivalry between the newly rich merchant class and the old aristocracy.

Massinger wrote for Shakespeare's former theatre company The King's Men.

He was a scattergun satirist, who in this play also takes a pop at astrologers, brutal law enforcers and includes possibly the first dig at the Americans.

The convoluted plot centres on Luke Frugal, who has wasted his fortune and now works as a servant in his rich brother's household, where he is meanly treated by his sister-and-law and nieces. Behind his reformed exterior, he plots with servants to defraud his brother.

Meanwhile, that brother, made weary by his haughty wife's financial excesses and suspicious of his brother's pious new image, pretends to retire to a monastery but returns with his daughters' two rejected suitors in disguise as American Indians (seeking a Christian education) to observe how Luke uses his new found power and fortune.

Dominic Hill's fast-paced, 17th Century costumed production hinges on the role of Luke, and Jo Stone-Fewings emerges from the RSC ranks with a performance of such charisma, energy and passion that it should take his career to a new level.

At first he wins the audience's sympathy but, with the phrase "religion, conscience, charity, farewell", wealth and opportunity turns him into a vengeful Ollie Murs.

NIA Birmingham

OLLY Murs took Birmingham by storm at his sell-out show at the NIA this week.

He shot to fame after appearing on TV show The X Factor in 2009, and although he came second in the talent competition, he was certainly a winner in the crowd's eyes. On stage he was supported by a nine-piece band as he performed hits from his self-titled debut album, including Thinking Of Me and Heart On My Sleeve, and cover tracks including Superstition by Stevie Wonder.

During the performance Ollie proved every bit the showman by wowing the audience with his smooth dance moves.

He also showed gratitude to his fans by thanking them for voting for him on The X Factor, and ultimately helping him get where he is today.

The cheeky Essex lad paid particular attention to ladies in the audience, which was welcomed by the predominately female crowds, and even got one lucky lady on stage to dance with him.

Picture by Elle Kurtz/RSC

Jo Stone-Fewings as Luke Frugal and Sara Crowe as Lady Frugal silver-tongued devil before our very eyes in a production that also makes much use of magic tricks and illusion.

Lady Frugal (Sara Crowe) and her daughters (Lucy Briggs-Owen, Matti Houghton) are a monstrous flutter of fans and satin gowns, whilst Nicholas Day brings an engaging fruitiness to the role of elderly aristocrat Lord Lacy.

The broadest comedy comes from the suitors, Alex Hassell as the screeching dandy Sir Maurice and Felix Hughes as his rough bluff northern rival Mr Plenty. Christopher Ettridge becomes an audience favourite as the sharp-tongued servant Holdfast. Pippa Nixon got a big laugh as the Cockney chav prostitute Shave'em, leaping through a Royal Wedding souvenir copy of Hello magazine to find the perfect new carriage.

A puppet show laid on by the 'Indians' seemed a superfluous addition to a three hour play (including interval) but was certainly ingenious.

Audiences may bridle at the play's neat moralistic conclusion, which has the womenfolk promising to be obedient and modest, whilst Luke Frugal is stripped to his underpants, spat upon and cast out in the snow.

But when it deals with greed and pretension, The City Madam is a period piece with plenty to say to a modern audience.

It continues until October 4.

Leon Burakowski

An Evening with John Cleese.

Birmingham Hippodrome

John Cleese has worked with some of the greatest comedy writers and actors ever, and gave the audience an insight into his long and successful career.

The star of Monty Python first explains the reason he has decided to go on the road again - his recent divorce from American psychotherapist Alysia Faye Eichelberger is costing him $20 million over the next five years.

After briefly expressing extreme dissatisfaction with Californian law, the 71-year-old settles down to begin his show, starting with his family's roots. Anyone expecting the show to be a barrel of laughs may have been disappointed at this point.

However, once into full swing, Cleese packed the show full of clips from his early days on The Frost Report, to working with the Two Ronnies and eventually Monty Python.

The evening may not be as hilarious as many people would expect, but it did provide a fascinating insight into the golden era for British comedy, where shows were about experimenting and not ratings.

The second half of the show touched on black comedy, as Cleese believed a dark sense of humour was the only thing he and his mother had in common.

A clip of the Black Knight scene from Monty Python and the Holy Grail was sandwiched between stories of the group pushing each other to be as funny as possible while being a bit naughty, too.

Cleese gave a touching speech about his good friend and fellow Python Graham Chapman, who died in 1989, before moving on to reveal the hotel in which he based Fawlty Towers on and the inception of his hit film A Fish Called Wanda.

Throughout the night, Cleese made it clear he felt he was lucky to be involved in comedy and a three-minute montage of some of his funniest bits closed off the night in a fitting style.

While the show may not be what people expect it is packed full of anecdotes, stories and sketches, which may not always be funny, but are a treat for comedy fans all the same.

Chelsea to inspire nation's gardeners

VISITORS to the horticultural event of the year are likely to see more punchy colours, a push on ornamental fruit and veg and a continuing growth in native and naturalistic planting, experts are predicting.

The RHS Chelsea Flower Show is always a showcase for the most inspirational, out-of-this-world designs, but what can we take from the garden catwalk to the average domestic setting?

"There's always a danger that the show gardens become such grand statement pieces that you feel as though there's very little access in terms of the materials and the ideas you can take," says award-winning garden designer Chris Beardshaw, who this year is not only helping create the Bradstone Fusion Garden, an urban show garden, but is also a judge at

Chelsea contenders Bunny Guinness and Chris Beardshaw predict the trends of this year's show and look at how visitors can transfer inspirational ideas into their own gardens

Chelsea. "However, there seems to be a number of clear directions – one is a celebration of plants in history, reflecting on the plants which have performed particularly well for us.

"There's a huge move towards native plants and naturalistic planting.

"We are looking at gardening in a very biodiverse way, thinking carefully about the plants we weave together and what effect they are going to have, not just on our senses but on all of the other organisms that we share our spaces with.

"You see plants growing in the way plants want to grow. It's gardening for people who like the organisms around them to be as relaxed as they are."

Hot plants at Chelsea may include a clutch of interesting alpines such as meconopsis (blue poppies), along with quality herbaceous plants such as peonies and almost black bearded irises, while topiarised plants (watch out for the Laurent Perrier garden) will also be popular.

"Large topiarised plants are becoming more available and people are spending less on collections of plants and more on individual ones," Beardshaw observes.

"People are happy to spend £100 upwards on a single large specimen."

"B&Q and Homebase, both at Chelsea with show gardens, feel there's a market for increasing the public's awareness of plant materials."

"The idea of growing fruit and veg in baskets and boxes and up walls and fences has to come in through a more mainstream source."

Bunny Guinness, winner of six gold medals at the show and designer of the 2011 M&G garden, a modern take on a traditional kitchen garden, predicts fruit and vegetables will be brought into the spotlight in domestic gardens.

The RHS Chelsea Flower Show, The Royal Hospital, London SW3, May 24-28 (May 24-25, RHS members only, May 26-28, RHS members and non-members).

Apartments near to city centre are first of their kind

Carole Ashworth, Sales Manager for David Wilson Mercia

LEADING housebuilder David Wilson Mercia now has its very first release of apartments at Victoria Place – the five star developer's popular Lichfield development on Friary Road.

The two-bedroom apartments are the first of their kind at the development and give first time buyers in Lichfield the opportunity to live within walking distance of the town centre and train station.

The new properties feature two large bedrooms, a cloakroom, modern bathroom room, utility room and a contemporary kitchen that opens out onto the spacious living/dining room, which forms the centrepiece of the property and provides an excellent space for entertaining friends or relaxing in front of a film.

"We're delighted to have our very first apartments for sale at Victoria Place" commented Carole Ashworth. "They are ideal for first time buyers and it's great to have plenty to offer visitors who are hoping to take their first step on the property ladder."

"We also have a range of services for first time buyers to help and support them throughout their move. Our Head Start service gives anyone buying their first home the opportunity to move in for just 85% of the price – meaning you could find a home here for as little as £129,625 with a deposit of just £6,481.25."

David Wilson's Head Start scheme is specifically designed for homebuyers who want to get on the housing ladder as soon as possible but don't have the large deposit required by some lenders.

Under the scheme, homebuyers can purchase a new David Wilson home for just 85 per cent of the asking price, with an 80 per cent mortgage and a five per cent deposit. The remaining 15 per cent is paid back, interest free, after 10 years or when the property is sold – whichever comes sooner.

"People are often surprised that they can move into a new home with such a low deposit" continued Carole. "But our Head Start scheme offers purchasers an excellent way to make the move from renting to buying."

Surprised

"We have had a lot of interest in this latest release and one of the six apartments has already been purchased. We're delighted with the popularity of our newest properties and we're looking forward to welcoming visitors to Victoria Place where our friendly and helpful sales advisers will be able to answer any questions you have about moving with David Wilson."

Victoria Place currently offers a selection of two-bedroom apartments priced from £152,500 and three-, four- and five-bedroom homes available from £232,500.

For more information, contact the sales office open daily from 10am until 5pm on 01543 417026. Alternatively, call the sales hotline on 0844 811 3322 open seven days a week from 8am to 9pm or log on to www.dwh.co.uk/victoriaplace

Alfa revives a pedigree with chic and charisma

AS ALFA ROMEO prepares to celebrate its 100th anniversary in June, the Italian firm's latest model revives one of the most evocative names from its glorious past: The Giulietta.

Few car companies can match Alfa Romeo for sporting pedigree and it remains by some distance the most glamorous of the mainstream marques. But pedigree and glamour count for little unless you are shifting metal – and these days loss-making Alfa needs to start selling more cars in order to remain viable.

With that in mind the Turin-based firm has revived the Giulietta, one of the most charismatic names from its distinguished heritage, to do battle in the cut-throat mid-sized hatchback sector of the market.

While Alfa of old were traditionally all about driver appeal and effortless chic, these days the more workmanlike qualities of solidity and reliability are required too.

Still, there's enough Italian flair and style about the design of the Giulietta to keep the most ardent of Alfisti happy, from the chiselled front, with its 8C-style compact grille, to the elegantly rounded proportions of the rear.

From the side, it admittedly resembles a SEAT Leon but then that was designed by Alfa old boy Walter de'Silva anyway.

By Peter Carroll

The new Giulietta is some 16 per cent bigger than its predecessor, the 147, which probably does not count for much, as space was never a plus point in the former.

The Giulietta does feel slightly tight for space in the back but at least there's a decent sized boot, which you open by pressing the Alfa badge.

The cabin is not as dramatic as that of the Brera, or even the 159, but is nevertheless stylish and distinguished by a row of centrally located toggle switches with a designer feel.

Interior quality looks decent, though you'd ideally need to own one for a few months to see if it remained free of rattles and squeaks.

The leather seats in the test car, a top-of-the-range 170hp Veloce 2.0 litre diesel, were good and I found it easy to get comfortable behind the wheel – something that could not be said of every Alfa in the past.

If, like me, you tend to associate Alfas with revvy engines and light, deft steering, you'll find neither present in the Veloce diesel. The soundtrack from under the bonnet is more mundane, while the steering is accurate but on the weighty side – and it gets even heavier if you press the Dynamic button on the "DNA" selector panel.

This panel, under the centre console, offers a choice of three driver settings, depending on road conditions.

The "A" position is for adverse weather conditions, while the default setting is "N" for normal, "D" for is "Dynamic" and employed when drivers wish to press on.

The throttle response becomes notably sharper and the car feels far quicker when this setting is engaged.

Not everyone will appreciate the extra steering weight that comes into play, however, and none of the settings can be customised.

All models in the Giulietta range benefit from Alfa's clever electronic Q2 differential which adjusts the power directed to the front wheels to boost traction through bends.

Competitive

Driven carefully, it should be possible to return 50mpg but hey, this is an Alfa and my consumption ended up in the low 40s, as I had it in "D" most of the time.

Running costs should be reasonable. The Giulietta can be driven frugally, CO2 emissions are competitive, and service intervals extend to over 20,000 miles. Insurance for the 170hp model is group 25 out of 50 but this falls to group 20 if the 140hp model is chosen, and it's only slightly less quick.

The Giulietta feels solid and assured on the road rather than nervous and flighty. Ride quality is good and the car makes a decent fist of soaking up the bumps.

Too often in the past Alfas have represented the triumph of style over substance with poor reliability and inferior build quality leading to catastrophic residual values.

But the firm looks to be turning things round with cars like the MiTo and now the Giulietta. It's still too early to tell whether the Giulietta has the staying power to transform the fortunes of the loss-making, Fiat-owned brand – but it certainly possesses enough panache to appeal as an alternative to the ubiquitous Focus, Golf or Astra hatchback offerings. There are plenty of other "boutique" offerings in this sector, however, ranging from the excellent value Citroen DS3 and forthcoming DS4 to Audi's A1 and VW's shapely Scirocco.

Alfa Romeo expects diesel Giuliettas to outsell petrol models in the UK, to the sort of driver who has to buy with the head as well as the heart.

But if you like the idea of an Alfa I still think you'd be better off – emotionally, if not financially – with a petrol Giulietta.

The anniversary edition blends classic design elements with innovative features

Golf reaches milestone

TO CELEBRATE the 35th anniversary of the original hot hatch, Volkswagen has announced the first details of the latest special edition Golf GTI model – the Golf GTI Edition 35.

With an increase in power of 25PS over the "standard" car, the Edition 35 develops 235PS and is the most powerful production Golf GTI to date.

Since the debut of the first Golf GTI in 1976, the iconic model has enjoyed an uninterrupted history of success which now spans 35 years.

During this time, the GTI has become a car with cult appeal as well as an independent brand.

Milestone GTI anniversaries have been celebrated with exclusive special models, and Volkswagen continues this tradition with the Edition 35.

In addition to the increase in power, the Edition 35 combines classic GTI design elements with features specially created for this latest anniversary model.

A revised front bumper is joined by lightweight 18in alloy wheels while, in the cabin, the golfball gear knob makes a return. To mark out this special edition further, the "35" signature appears on the front wings, sill plates, head restraints and on the centre panel of the seats.

This latest anniversary model will make its world debut at the legendary GTI event at Wörthersee in Austria at the beginning of June.

The Golf GTI Edition 35 will open for order in the UK later this year. Prices and full UK specification will be announced in due course.

Seven up! Team Lotus buys sporty Caterham Cars firm

A SPORTS car company is set for expansion after being bought by the company behind the Team Lotus Formula One squad.

Surrey-based Caterham Cars has been acquired by Team Lotus Enterprise (TLE).

It was Lotus Cars under its founder Colin Chapman which first designed the Lotus Seven, which has been built and distributed by Caterham Cars since 1973.

A green and yellow Lotus Seven was driven by actor Patrick McGeehan in the cult 1960s TV series The Prisoner.

The existing Surrey-based Caterham management team, headed by managing director Ansar Ali, will carry on.

Mr Ali said: "This is yet another exciting chapter in the Caterham story."

"Until now the resources Caterham has had at its disposal have, naturally, limited the exposure of the Caterham experience and the legendary Seven has had to rely almost entirely on its remarkable reputation and legacy."

Acquisition

"The acquisition of the company will allow our existing management team to take Caterham's core spirit of pure driving enjoyment to a hitherto unserved audience."

"While the Seven will now have the global springboard it deserves and will continue to be evolved yet further, we also have the opportunity to expand the Caterham family beyond the Seven and SP/300.R and breathe new life into our uniquely respected brand and mature it into a truly global business."

TLE's Tony Fernandes said: "Caterham has a unique place at the heart of the motoring world."

"As well as being proudly and staunchly British, it has an enviable and uniquely unblemished reputation within the industry for performance, handling and engineering excellence."

To celebrate its new ownership, Caterham Cars will build a limited run of Team Lotus Special Edition Sevens, 25 for the home market and 25 for export.

Free prize draw to launch Crossrunner

The Honda Crossrunner comes in red, black and white

Honda's much-anticipated Crossrunner is now in Honda Motorcycle dealerships across the UK and to celebrate its arrival, Honda (UK) is giving away a brand new Crossrunner as part of a Free Prize Draw.

Since its UK debut last November and recent test ride launch, the Crossrunner has sparked widespread interest.

Genuine

It has been raved about by motorcycling publications, such as Motorcycle News which was "surprised by the seductive styling".

Motor Cycle Monthly claimed the Crossrunner as a "genuine do-it-all bike, capable of putting a huge smile on your face".

Available in red, white and black, and priced competitively at £9,075 OTR, the Crossrunner has been available to test ride at dealerships from Saturday, May 14.

One lucky person will also win a brand new Crossrunner simply by visiting www.honda.co.uk and completing the online entry form, or by filling in an entry form in dealerships, by July 31.

Five runners-up will further receive a Honda experience day at either the Mick Extance Off-Road Experience or Ron Haslam Race School, with a Sony Playstation 3 also on offer as a third prize.

And if you take a test ride of this great new all-rounder machine, Honda (UK) wants to hear your thoughts and you could also receive gift vouchers for the value of £15 for M&S or John Lewis.

Ask your dealer for a Crossrunner test-ride evaluation form by June 30, or download one from www.honda.co.uk, fill it in, ask your dealer to stamp it and send it in.

The Crossrunner's roomy, upright "Adventure" style provides all-round comfort.

But at the same time its nimble performance of a "Naked" and the responsiveness of its sports-touring chassis all combine to make the Crossrunner an ideal all-round machine. The machine is powered by the proven and legendary Honda VFR800 V4 engine.

The Crossrunner has also been designed with pillion comfort in mind with a lower rear seat designed for easy mounting. Positioning the pillion at a similar level to the rider has resulted in improved wind protection and an enhanced ride feel for users.

Its ABS equipped braking system as standard further enhances the machine's performance and safety, while the wide handlebar configuration contributes to quick, accurate and responsive steering input.

Sleek

The versatility of this great all-round machine is extended further by a range of Honda Genuine accessories to include a 29-litre pannier kit and sleek 31-litre top box, heated grips and higher windscreen.

● For full details of Honda's new-for-2011 machines or any other model in Honda's great range, latest offers and forthcoming events, visit your local Honda dealer, go to www.honda.co.uk or call 0845 200 8000.

Citroën's supermini takes magazine title

Diesel Car magazine's car of the year – the Citroën DS3

THE Citroën DS3 has won the prestigious Car of the Year 2011 in Diesel Car magazine awards.

Diesel Car magazine has acclaimed the Citroën DS3 with two highly prestigious honours in its annual awards: Best Small Car and Overall Car of the Year 2011. With diesel-powered cars from every market segment eligible for the Car of the Year title, Citroën's premium quality supermini beat off competition from every market segment to take the award and was also the winner in its own sector, Best Small Car.

In its 24th year of publication, Diesel Car is recognised as an authority on the rapidly-evolving diesel market in the UK. In its first year on sale, DS3 has transformed the supermini sector with its modern styling, unique personality and rewarding driving dynamics, which have taken total sales beyond 80,000 units.

"The Citroën DS3 has an ageless air about it, with a youthful exuberance that gives it a trendy appeal, but at the same time exuding an enduring quality and substance," said Diesel Car editor, Ian Robertson.

"The driving experience combined a secure, planted feel with a pert, grippy liveliness that makes it real fun behind the wheel."

The Diesel Car awards join DS3's many accolades including Car of the Year from Top Gear magazine, Small Car of the Year from Channel 5's Fifth Gear and Best Hot Hatch from CarBuyer.

Accolades

Other award winners include: The Jaguar XF which once again won the Best Executive Car category in the Diesel Car magazine awards – the fourth time the British-built XF has scooped the award.

Peugeot was also a winner after scooping a brace of accolades. Its ground-breaking 3008 HYbrid4 has won its first award – five months before it goes on sale in the UK. Awarded Diesel Car magazine's Best Eco Car of 2011, the new model, which will use Peugeot's advanced diesel electric hybrid technology, will set a new benchmark for low CO₂ emissions when launched in the autumn.

For the second year in succession, the magazine also crowned Peugeot's exciting RCZ – powered by its class-leading 2.0l HDi 163bhp engine – as its Sports Car of the Year.

Ian says: "It is svelte and sexy, the RCZ has the look of a supercar but without the ridiculous price tag. We love it for its styling pizzazz, for its torquey turbodiesel verve, and for the smile it plasters across your face when you drive it."

These latest awards round off a fine 18 months for Peugeot UK which has won over a dozen major awards from the industry's media including the What Car? Car of the Year 2010, Top Gear's Coupé of the Year and Fleet News Green Fleet Manufacturer of the Year 2011.

You want to buy a second-hand car.

Just something that's fuel-efficient. But it needs a bit of power – your neighbourhood's quite nilly and your groceries can be so heavy. And it's nice to have an engine that roars.

Mary Rose keep final record as rivals sunk Friday 13th proves an unlucky day for Reece

CANNOCK CHASE SUNDAY LEAGUE by TIM ELSMORE

CONGRATULATIONS from the Cannock Chase League to Belt Road FC who completed a magnificent quadruple of trophies this season. The feat has not been achieved since the early 80s of the famous Brereton Town sides.

The Cannock Chase Cup was won by beating the

Sam's the Golden boy as Rangers sign off with win

WYRLEY TIGERS U-10 0 ASHMORE PARK 2
THIS was going to be a tough test for Wyrley, playing against this season's Premier League winners.

However Wyrley kept their shape well throughout the whole game. Josh Smith was unlucky on a couple of occasions, striking the crossbar in the first half and going close in the second half.

Ashmore however had a central defender with a natural quality to striking a dead ball and after a goalless first half, Wyrley were beaten by two excellent free kicks.

BELVEDERE 1 WYRLEY JUNIORS U-15 3
Wyrley worked their socks off during this game and deservedly took all three points.

Wyrley took the lead through an Ilora Anderson free-kick but Belvedere are a competitive unit and struck back a few minutes later.

Abi Hall made it 2-1 at half time and Man of the Match Lizzie Scoines rounded off the scoring.

STAFFORD RANGERS U-15 5 HEDNESFORD TOWN 0

Rangers fired five goals past Hednesford to round off their season and clinch third place in the Lichfield and District premier league.

Aaron Audley broke the deadlock before a neat header from Sean Phillips gave Rangers a two goal lead before the break.

The home side continued to dominate in the second half and increased their tally as striker Sam Golden laid the ball back for Phillips to deliver his second.

Golden was on hand to put the side 4-0 in front, and with the clock ticking down, Dan Starkey added his name to the scoresheet.

WYRLEY PUMAS 0 HEDNESFORD UNITED GIRLS FC U-13 1

Hednesford secured fourth spot in the league thanks to a second half winner from Charli Philpott.

Wyrley had come closest in the first half, but Georgia Clarke cleared two shots off the line by Georgia Clarke.

Players of the match were Chloe Taylor and Jess Fowler.

BRERETON TOWN GIRLS U-13 0 BURNTWOOD PHOENIX GIRLS 3 - LEAGUE CUP FINAL

After a successful season and League Cup campaign, Brereton Town Girls faced a difficult and strong Burntwood Phoenix side.

Despite some excellent defending by Ella Clarke and Man of the Match Hannah Burns, Brereton found themselves 3-0 down at the half time whistle.

The second half was very exciting with Brereton having most of the possession with some outstanding runs by Katie Orme and Harriet Greenwood.

Anyone interested in joining the team is asked to contact Chris on 07815 827391.

RUGELEY Rangers Lions under-11s are looking to strengthen their squad for next season. Training is open to any child currently in year 5.

Anyone interested, call either Wayne Mortiboys on 07739 039899 or Monique McPeake on 07989 744375 for more details.

holders Beacon Way to sit in the trophy cabinet along with the Premier League Cup and the Brereton Town Cup. After only 38 seconds, a Karl Wallis corner flew straight into the back of the net via the post to put Belt Road in front.

On 30 minutes, Belt Road's legend Chris Deakin made it two by beating the advancing keeper to score his 60th goal of the season. The game was over on the hour mark with an own goal from Beacon and then with the end of the game drawing near, that man Chris Deakin headed home at the near post from a corner kick to beat the Beacon Way again and not concede a goal from their three cup finals.

Captain marvel Paul Stevenson lifted the Cannock Chase Cup for the fifth time off guest of honour, Chronicle editor Mark Shipp, in front of a crowd of 169. Tom Preece was Man of the Match.

In the Cannock Charity Cup Final, Mary Rose from Cheslyn Hay made it four cup final wins out of four by beating Broomhill Albion 2-1.

Man of the Match Scott Sandland netted twice in the first half to set up what would appear to be an easy victory.

Broomhill came out fighting in the second half, though and pulled a goal back. But as they got stronger and Mary Rose were hanging on, the final whistle came to the rescue.

Captain Gary Foulkes received the Charity Cup from Helen Richards in front of a crowd of 202 and £500 was raised to be shared out to cancer and blind charities. Secretary Shaun Smith thanked his players for keeping up their remarkable record of winning every cup final that they have played in.

Club's family fun day

RUGELEY Rangers FC are holding a family fun day this weekend at St Augustine's field.

The fun starts at 10.30am on Sunday (May 22) with an adult five-a-side competition, children's penalty shoot-out, bouncy castle, face painting, bar-becue, refreshments, fun stalls and much more.

Rugeley Rangers FC currently have teams from five years of age right up to senior level and anyone who would be interested in sponsoring a side, helping out a side or for more information on the family fun day call Darren Downes on 07875386124.

FRIDAY 13th was indeed unlucky for Great Wyrley boxer Reece Roberts as he came up against a class act in 15 year old Josh White (Earl Shilton ABC).

Roberts, as usual the shorter man in the ring, let his taller opponent come to him in the first round and tried to counter him but White, who had the legend "White Hot" on the waistband of his shorts, lived up to that nickname and displayed very fast hands.

A change of tactics was needed in the second round and Roberts tried to get close to his opponent.

He had a bit of success, especially over the top with his right hand, but the last round saw White establish control with his jab and fast combinations and Roberts gritted his teeth and showed great defensive work to see it through to the end against a very good opponent who'd won his previous bout in the first round.

Said coach Peter Hickenbottom: "It's not through lack of effort in the gym that Reece is not getting a win."

"He and his twin brother Mitchell are the hardest trainers in the gym, but he's come up against taller men than himself."

"He was very unlucky in his last bout as we thought he'd won it hands down but that elusive first win is only just around the corner and once he gets that winning habit he'll keep it."

LICHFIELD Hockey Club's Juniors celebrated a fantastic season by awarding trophies to the players who had made brilliant progress in all competitions.

With more than 150 youngsters training regularly throughout the season Lichfield has now become a force in Midlands Hockey.

With the Under 14, 16 and 18 girls and boys progressing further than ever before in the England Hockey Competitions and the club's Under 10 and Under 8 teams competing well in all tournaments and festivals this has been a great season.

All players in the Under 14 Girls and Boys teams and Under 12 Girls, who had won places in the regional finals, were awarded silver certificates and badges for their efforts.

Players of the season at Under 16 were Laura Groves (Girls) and Ifan Jackson (Boys).

Overall Players of the year went to Amy Booth and Sam Greenbank, who was also awarded a Gold Certificate and badge for all of his work helping at training sessions and umpiring.

Any youngsters wanting to join or take up hockey please email david.willenbruch@ntlworld.com or phone 01543 301326.

Lichfield Hockey Club travelled to Halesowen to take part in the Old Halesowen Badgers Festival last weekend. Last year the club won this with a team of senior Badgers players, this time around the younger players were given their chance and although they did not come back with the trophy they proved just how many good players the club had.

Led by Ellie Witton in goal, Chris Sullivan played well in defence, ably assisted by Dan Wood, Jeevan Garcha and Jonathan Groves. Curtis Wescott competed strongly in the midfield while Oliver Mason and Stephen Little did damage by scoring the goals. The team enjoyed the day and ended up a creditable fourth out of nine teams.

AZTECS 3 BEARS 2

Ben Argyle-Ross hit a hat-trick as the Aztecs beat the Bears in the first of this summer's Lichfield Premier League matches with goals by Chris Sullivan and Josh Smith in reply.

COUGARS 2 DINOSAURS 5

On Thursday evening the

HOCKEY

Dinosaurs met the Cougars as part of the Lichfield Premier Summer league to win by five goals to two with goals from Ben Eastland, with Harry Carpenter, Finley Saunders and Jeevan Garcha also on target.

The Cougars replied through Richard Jukes and Matthew Fryer.

LADIES SUMMER A 3 PHOENIX 2
Lichfield Ladies A team beat Phoenix Ladies in a thrilling match which swayed back and forth.

After Frances Kightley in the Lichfield goal had saved a penalty flick, Imogen Dean gave Lichfield the lead. Following a break down the middle Phoenix pulled a goal back.

In the second half Phoenix took the lead early on and it was down to Collette Edwards to grab two goals to bring Lichfield home.

LADIES SUMMER B 3 WOLVES & TETENHALL 0
Glenda Francis had a hand in all three goals, scored by Emma Nuttall (2) and Becky Wright.

CHARLIE'S ANGELS XI 1 STAFFORD POLICE XI 0
Cannock's senior team began their summer league campaign in winning ways with a tight 1-0 victory over Stafford Police.

A close game was decided right at the end of the game when Becky Blakey scored off a penalty flick. A great start for captain Charlie Robinson and her team.

CANNOCK 'A' XI 2 TAMWORTH 'A' 4
The opening summer league game brought mixed feelings for all involved on Tuesday night as Cannock lost a close game 4-2 at Chase Park.

Two goals for Ellie Watton was not enough as Cannock could not stop four goals from a strong Tamworth team.

CANNOCK 'B' 1 UTTOXETER XI 4
The first game back after the end of the hockey season, unfortunately meant a challenging start for Cannock against Uttoxeter.

After going 2-0 down in the first part of the game, Cannock still held their heads high and were determined to battle on. This determination then led to a goal from Amy Neal, to make it 2-1 at half time.

Despite Cannock not giving up and battling to win every ball, they could not rescue the game, which finished 4-1 to the opposition.

Pitmen supporters urged to 'Play Their Part' in renovating Keys Park

HEDNESFORD Town fans are being urged to 'Play Their Part' in getting Keys Park ready for next season.

The club's Football Club Supporters Association launched the initiative at their end of season meeting last Thursday (May 12). It aims to enlist the help of loyal Pitmen supporters to renovate the ground in time for the 2011/12 campaign in August.

Joint chairman Scott Smith thanked the volunteers who helped deal with the bumper crowds seen at both Play-off games and urged supporters throughout the area to continue to give their Club a helping hand.

"We will assist the club in formulating a maintenance plan over the next couple of weeks and hope to set aside two or three weekends where supporters can come down and help to give the ground a good lick of paint ready for our new campaign," he said. "All any of our fans need to offer is a paintbrush and their time."

The selected dates will be published in due course and club secretary, Terry McMahon, has put the club's support firmly behind the venture.

"I know the Chairman was immensely grateful of everyone's help during the run-in and is extremely encouraged by the support offered in the 'Play Your Part' initiative in making Keys Park gleaming as we enter a new season, whichever league we are in."

In a thoroughly positive meeting other ideas were raised regarding possible link ups with local charities, tentative plans for a 15th Anniversary commemoration of Hednesford's famous FA Cup Fourth Round match with Middlesbrough in January and orders regarding HTFCSA official merchandise.

Supporters interested in 'Playing Their Part' are encouraged to contact Scott Smith via Facebook, the HTFCSA forum at www.htfcsa.co.uk, email upthetown629@hotmail.com or call Keys Park on 01543 422870.

CANNOCK 1ST XI (109-4) BEAT FORDHOUSES (108) BY SIX WICKETS
BIRMINGHAM League Division Two leaders Cannock registered their second win of the season at Fordhouses.

Adeel Khan took 4-27 as the Wolverhampton side were shot out for 108 before Dave Womble's unbeaten 46 steered Cannock to the summit.

The second XI clash against Fordhouses was abandoned with Cannock having made 86-2 in reply to 238-8.

LICHFIELD (117-5) BEAT PENN (116) BY FIVE WICKETS

In Division Three Lichfield's Tom Stone took 6-32 as Penn were dismissed for 116, a total that Lichfield passed for the loss of five wickets.

The second XI also won by the same margin as Lichfield, chasing Penn's total of 177, reached 179-5 in reply.

CANNOCK 3RDS (98-5) DREW WITH PELSALL 3RDS (194-7)

LEAGUE leaders Cannock played hosts to second placed Pelsall and consolidated their lead at the top of the table with a rain affected winning draw.

With the weather forecast predicting heavy showers from late afternoon, Cannock won the toss and decided that the best way to get a positive result would be to field first.

But, despite having Pelsall struggling at 150-7 from 40 overs, a half century stand between Buckingham and Jones saw Pelsall close on 194-7 with Dan Wood taking three wickets, with two each for Ant Wood and Tom Bull.

With the skies darkening it was only a matter of time before the showers started and a delay that lasted an hour soon followed.

With the innings now reduced to 34 overs any chance of a Cannock victory was fast disappearing and with the wet outfield much slower than earlier runs became more difficult to score. However, Cannock pressed on, managing to always be just in front of the four runs per over winning draw target.

The rain came again after 24 overs ending play for the day. Cannock had scored 98-5 with Jag Chahal top scoring with 22 giving them the winning draw and a useful 11 points.

CANNOCK U-15 (133-2) BEAT PENKIDGE U-15 (91-5) BY 42 RUNS

Cannock visited Penkridge in their latest league game and came away with a comfortable victory thanks to an excellent batting display.

The visitors scored 133-2 from their allotted 20 overs with Connor Shingler scoring 50 not out, James Caswell 35 not out and Jack Twigger 21.

Penkridge's reply started slowly and despite Conner Baynes retiring after reaching 50, they were never up with the run rate and closed on 91-5. Elliot Horton took 2-15 as Cannock returned home comfortable winners.

CANNOCK U-15 COLTS (205-3) BEAT WOLVERHAMPTON U-15 (145-5) BY 60 RUNS

Cannock U-15 Colts travelled to Wolverhampton for their latest East Shropshire league game and came away with an excellent victory by a substantial 60 run margin.

After losing the toss and on being asked to bat, the Colts posted an imposing total of 205-3 thanks entirely to a wonderful partnership of 175 between Jack Twigger and Connor Shingler which ended when Shingler was run out after scoring 90.

Twigger finished on 92 not out, batting for the entire Cannock innings.

Wolverhampton's reply started positively but the introduction to the attack of spinner Dan Wood soon put Cannock in charge with Wood quickly removing the top three batsmen in a spell of 3-18.

From here on the hosts were always behind the run rate and the innings closed on 145-5.

Couple rally to fifth place after setbacks

CANNOCK & DISTRICT CAR CLUB

FOLLOWING on from their success in the first round of the REIS MSA Asphalt Rally Championship 2011, driver Paul Culverwell and co-driver Jo Saddington took their Fuchs supported Peugeot 205 rear wheel drive rally car across the water to compete in the Isle of Man "Manx Telecom National B Rally" for the second round of the Championship.

With 14 stages to be contested over two days, this championship round would be a tough test for both the crew and the car, having undergone some recent suspension modifications.

The first competitive stage was watched by hundreds of spectators who lined the streets of Port Erin. The stage took the rally cars on a short 1.38 mile route through the town while the spectators made the most of the late evening sun.

Sadly, the fine weather didn't last and neither did the crew's good fortune, as nearing the end of stage three they broke a wheel. This didn't cost them time, however, as they limped cautiously back for a scheduled service stop.

With the car making it through the final two stages of Friday night, it was a late finish followed by an early start the next morning for the crew.

Saturday was to be a troublesome day for the duo as the problems grew. The driver's side of the front heated screen developed a fault, meaning his visibility was seriously impaired in the atrocious weather. Later in the morning both fuel pumps stopped working twice in one stage. After some emergency 'in stage' repair work, the crew finished seven seconds under the stage maximum time.

By the midway point through the second day these setbacks had dropped the Peugeot crew a long way down the results table leaving Culverwell and Saddington hopeful of simply being able to finish the rally.

With just three stages to go, the crew seemed to have experienced their fair share of problems, however, shortly after beginning stage 12 the intercom developed a problem, leaving the crew unable to speak to or hear each other. With Saddington needing to relay the notes to the driver she opted for a combination of shouting and hand signals to indicate the direction and speed of the roads.

As the Peugeot reached the final time control, the relief was immense for the Cannock and District Car Club pair as it meant that they had gained some hard-earned Championship points.

Driver Culverwell was particularly thrilled. He said: "I've wanted to do this rally for about 20 years, ever since I began rallying and now that I've done it, it was definitely worth the wait."

In the Manx National B rally, they finished fifth overall and first in class B10. The result saw them maintain second place in their class and get promoted to first position in the BTRDA RWD Challenge Co-drivers.

The Peugeot and crew travel to Scotland for the next Championship round, the Jim Clark Rally from May 27-29.

Leaders up next as another stern test is negotiated

PENKIDGE 1ST XI (248-6) BEAT BEACON (224-6) BY FOUR WICKETS

PENKIDGE overcame another stern test on Saturday (May 14) as they triumphed in their away fixture against Beacon by four wickets.

The home side were inserted after Penkridge won the toss and made steady progress, reaching 122-1 at drinks, thanks to Nathan Howell (58) and Aqil Ahmed (36).

Left arm Ross Shelton rose to the occasion taking 4-54 and prevented Beacon from posting an unassailable total.

Faisal Nadeem (2-42) took the other two wickets to fall as Beacon closed on 244-6. By contrast Penkridge had a stuttering start, finding themselves 86-3 at the midway point despite 41 from Ronnie Hassan.

Skipper Paul Szweczyk (76) and Laeq Chisht (74) took the game by the scruff of the neck with a match-winning fourth wicket partnership of 121, enabling Penkridge to pass their target in the 45th over, all of which sets up a mouth-watering tie this coming Saturday against league leaders Pelsall.

PENKIDGE 2ND (227) DREW WITH BEACON (157-8)

The second XI were thwarted by the weather as they sought to maintain their 100 per cent winning start to the season, and had to settle for a convincing winning draw.

Batting first, the depth of Penkridge's order was tested as they faltered to 74-4, but once again the blend of experience and youth told as Kev Baker (78) and Kieran Smith balanced the ship with a stand of 74 for the fifth wicket.

Cameos further down the order from newcomer Roger Weston and old stager Neil Davis led Penkridge to a final total of 227 in 50 overs. Beacon came out all guns blazing scoring 71 from their first 10 overs, but the introduction of Jon Price (2-24) and Rich James (4-18) checked the run rate and put Penkridge back in control. Interruptions for rain meant the Beacon innings was reduced to 39 overs and they closed out for a draw, finishing on 157-8.

PENKIDGE 3RD (173-9) DREW WITH WEST BROMWICH DARTMOUTH (15-2)

The third XI similarly suffered at the hands of the weather.

Batting first Penkridge mustered 173-9 from 50 overs, thanks to a diligent innings of 81 not out from Steve Jones, but a downpour when West Bromwich Dartmouth were 15-2 in the eighth over put paid to the game.
